[For more new ADVERTISEMENTS, ſee the Fourth Page.]

By the Ship CATHERINE, Captain SUTTON, arrived here in a ſhort Paſſage from LONDON, we have the following Advices, viz.

PETERSBOURG, January 24.

HER Imperial Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint ------ Baxter, Eſq; of London, who is now here, her Conſul General in England, and all its dominions.

Trieſte, Feb. 4. Count Averſperg, firſt Preſident of the Regency, ſet off the 30th of laſt month ſuddenly for Vienna; this precipitate departure cauſes many conjectures to be made.

Hague, Feb. 20. The Viſcount de la Herreria, Ambaſſador from Spain at this place, delivered lately to the States General a memorial, in which, by order of his Court, he complains of the abuſes committed by ſome officers of Dutch ſhips of war, who (in virtue of the liberty granted them by the 20th article of the treaty of Utrecht, to enter and continue in the harbour of Cadiz) have carried away vaſt quantities of piaſtres, without paying the cuſtomary duties eſtabliſhed by his Catholic Majeſty. To this the States have returned for anſwer, that they will give expreſs orders to the officers of their marine, that they ſhall ſtrictly obſerve the rules which the States themſelves have formed on this ſubject, which are conformable to thoſe of the Court of Spain.

Leopol, Feb. 19. Nothing is more uncertain than the progreſs of the negociations for a peace at Buchareſt, the Courts intereſted in that matter keeping the profoundeſt ſilence.

Conſtantinople, Feb. 3. Two Ruſſian Officers, who arrived here ſome time ſince, were ſent back the 24th ult. to Buchareſt.

The Porte ordered to be ſent off yeſterday 2800 purſes, to pay the troops of our grand army their arrears of pay for half a year.

Paris, March 8. For eight days together at the end of laſt month, on the coaſt of Normandy, they had the moſt violent winds ever remembered on that coaſt, in conſequence of which the ſea overflowed part of the town of Havre, and its neighbouring villages; the banks, jettees and ſluices, built to defend the town, were torn up, the houſes ſituate on the quays entirely overflown, and the inhabitants with the greateſt difficulty eſcaped with their lives: Several boats and ſmall veſſels were loſt in the harbour, and many perſons drowned, but the ſhipping eſcaped pretty well. The waves that broke on the jettees were ſo exceſſive ſtrong, as to throw a maſs of iron, which weighed near 6000 lb. to a conſiderable diſtance. Some veſſels were loſt on the coaſt, and a great number of ſeamen periſhed.

Barcelona, Feb. 20. On the 2d inſt. 4 Turkiſh ſhips of war, two Morocco frigates, and 12 gallies, put into this harbour. On board of one of the Turkiſh ſhips was a Turk of diſtinction, who immediately landed and went to the Governor, with whom he had a long conference; and the next day ſet off under an eſcort of Spaniſh horſe for the court of Madrid; and the ſhips, &c. are ordered to wait his return.

Paris, March 9. The whole edition of a new book entitled, "Memoirs for Illuſtration of the Hiſtory of Mademoiſelle de Beaumont," known in the world by the name of Chevalier d'Eon, has been ſeized by order of the Lieutenant de Police; the printer and the bookſeller have been ſent to the Baſtile; the ladies in general regret much the loſs of a work, which reſtored them a celebrated heroine who ſo long had baſely deſerted their colours.

Cork, March 1. The ſhip Hopewell, of and from New-York, Archibald Long, Maſter, out 24 days, being bound for Newry, was obliged to put in here, in very great diſtreſs, having loſt all her ſails.

LONDON.

March 5. The Petition for eſtabliſhing a Steel Manufactory in North-America is withdrawn.

March 6. The new Duke of Courland is gone from Mittau, his capital, to Peterſburgh, to do homage to the Empreſs, and ſolicit her protection to him in the poſſeſſion of that ſovereignty. The elevation of this Prince to a place among the Potentates of Europe, is a ſingular circumſtance; his father the late Duke was no more than a groom, and owed his illuſtrious fortune to his perſonal beauty, which captivated one of the Ruſſian Empreſſes.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, Feb. 7.

"We have juſt received advice here, that a treaty is now going forwards between the Dey and Regency of Algiers and the Court of Madrid, which will be of equal advantage to both. By the articles of this treaty, the Algerines and the Spaniards have mutually agreed to guarantee each other's trade in the Mediterranean. The Spaniſh ſlaves now in the kingdom of Algiers are to be delivered up, and in conſequence the Spaniards oblige themſelves to give up to the Moors the town of Marſalquiver, which lies on a bay of the Mediterranean, four miles to the ſouth-eaſt of Oran, and preſent the Dey with three ſhips compleat, to mount 36 carriage guns each."

A letter from Stockholm ſays, that the King of Sweden having ſome time ſince propoſed to the Bank, to advance money to ſuch perſons as would depoſit effects with them, they conſented; and in conſequence they now lend the full value on all gold and ſilver work, ſubject to an intereſt of four per cent. per annum.

The following naval expeditions are now ſaid to be reſolved on: A Commodore, with three ſhips of the line, and two frigates, for the coaſt of Guinea; an Admiral, with five ſail of the line, and three frigates, for Newfoundland; an Admiral, with ſix line of battle ſhips, for the Eaſt-Indies, to touch at the Spaniſh Philippines; a Commodore in the Mediterranean; and another to reinforce the fleet already on the Weſt-India ſtation.

The maſter of a veſſel lately arrived from Jamaica, ſays that, excluſive of the men of war building at the Havanna, fifteen row gallies of a ſwift-ſailing conſtruction, and capable of mounting fourteen ſwivels, are on the ſtocks, and in great forwardneſs at that place. They are deſigned in light winds to row as well as ſail; the builder has engaged, that in caſe of a calm they can be impelled, by the force of oars, at the rate of ſix knots an hour.

The ſame perſon ſays, that between 3 and 400 ſhip-carpenters, &c. are arrived there from Old Spain, in order to expedite the conſtruction of the men of war and veſſels now upon the ſtocks at that place.

By the Expedition Packet we hear, that the Engliſh merchants at Liſbon are on better terms with the Portugueſe, than they have been for ſeveral years, and commiſſions are come over for cutlery goods and wares to the amount of 200,000 l.

A plan has for ſome time been under conſideration, for entirely ſuppreſſing the ſmuggling trade, from the iſlands of Jerſey and Guernſey, which, upon an average, has been computed to damage the revenue one hundred and fifty thouſand pounds per annum.

March 8. The Peggy, Coldclough, from Virginia to Dublin, was loſt the 24th ult. near Londonderry.

A beautiful young Counteſs, well known in the gay world, is ſaid to be at preſent locked up in a ſpunging houſe, and cannot get a ſingle individual in the round of the whole nobility to extricate her from ſo mortifying a ſituation.

March 10. The Portland man of war is ſailed for the Weſt-Indies, with ſome particular diſpatches.

Lord Bellamont ſtill continues in a moſt critical ſituation, and his caſe ſeems to baffle the utmoſt ſkill of the faculty.

Yeſterday morning early a duel was fought with piſtols in Moorfields between William G-----, Eſq; and the Author of ſome Paragraphs, highly reflecting on that gentleman's character. After a bold engagement, in which each had fired twice, the ſeconds interpoſed, and the affair was amicably ſettled.

Seven ſail of North American ſhips, laden with wheat and flour, were arrived at Dublin when the poſt came away.

Extract of a letter from Peterſbourg, Feb. 9.

"The late failures in Holland having occaſioned ſome likewiſe in England, the effects of which have been felt among the Engliſh merchants eſtabliſhed here, one in particular, whoſe partners at London have ſtopt payment, is at preſent in ſome difficulty. He has a demand of 96,000 rubles on ſome Noblemen, but they being at law with the Crown for a larger ſum could not pay him; he therefore addreſſed himſelf immediately to the Empreſs, and though the pretenſions of theſe Noblemen were not yet ſufficiently proved, her Imperial Majeſty was ſo generous as to pay him the 96,000 rubles; and being convinced that trade is one of the principal concerns of the ſtate, and conſequently ought to be ſupported by every means, ſhe ordered the Court banker to let all the foreign merchants know, that a million of rubles lie ready, of which any of them might take up what ſum they wanted, upon giving up an exact ſtate of their affairs, and ſecurity for the money advanced."

Sir Baſil Keith (brother to Sir Robert Keith) is appointed Governor of Jamaica.

It is reported, that a certain noble American Governor, is now on his way home without leave, and that the affairs of the colony are in the utmoſt confuſion. The above report came in a private letter from Charles-Town.

March 11. According to the laſt letters from Madrid, the King of Spain has ordered a camp to be formed this month near Valencia, which is to conſiſt of 22 ſquadrons of horſe, and 24,000 foot, the deſign of this is not known, but moſt people think it too early in the ſeaſon for a camp of amuſement. Some letters from Italy inſinuate, that the King of Sardinia purpoſes to aſſemble an army of 30,000 men this ſummer.

March 16. It is ſaid three Gentlemen of the firſt character at Boſton (of whom the famous Mr. Otis is one) are deputed by the General Aſſembly of that Province to come to England, in order to deliver a Petition and Remonſtrance into his Majeſty's own hands:---That they are alſo inſtructed to ſupplicate a perſonal hearing of his Majeſty, upon the ſubject of American grievances, that the People of that Colony may have certain knowledge their prayers have reached the Royal ear, and that they may, once for all, know what they have to depend upon: And it is ſuppoſed all the other Provinces will follow the example of that of Maſſachuſetts-Bay.

The laſt accounts from Bengal inform, that Heyder Ali was again at the head of a numerous army, which was expected ſoon to be in motion, but their deſtination is not known.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, February 19.

"There are great naval operations now going forward in almoſt every port belonging to the ſeveral ſtates of Barbary, eſpecially at Sallee, Tunis, Mamora, Algiers, and Larrache. At Algiers, no leſs than eight ſhips, from 20 to 50 guns, are now building, under the direction of ſome European renegadoes; and at the other ports ſeveral frigates, gallies, &c. are fitting out and building. Theſe preparations are ſaid to be intended againſt the Turks, as many of the Barbary ſtates, dependant upon the Porte, have long wiſhed for an opportunity to throw off their allegiance, which now offers as it is ſaid; they are unanimous in their reſolution, and will be ſupported in it by the Emperor of Morocco."

The poor Highlanders, who were ſhipwrecked ſome time ago on the coaſt of Ireland, are, through the charitable contributions of the Citizens of Dublin, and the amount of a benefit Play at Smock Alley, enabled to proceed on their voyage to Charles-Town.

Extract of a Letter from Glaſgow, Sunday Night, March 7.

"There is juſt now a Riot at Greenock among the Sailors, who inſiſt that their Wages ſhould commence immediately on their going aboard at the Tail of the Bank, inſtead of when they ſet ſail, as was the Practice formerly. They are aſſembled to the Number of 500, headed by ſome Iriſhmen. They have not only prevented the Ships from ſailing, but put a Stop to all Buſineſs at the Port, and will not even allow Tobacco to be weighed at the King's Scales. What Military we have here, which is only about 100 Men, are gone down this Morning."

Another Letter received ſince at Glaſgow mentions, "that the Mob continuing to behave in a riotous Manner, the Magiſtrates read the Riot Act; the Mob ſtill continuing, the Soldiers fired their Pieces over the Peoples Heads, when two Women were killed, and a Man and Woman dangerouſly wounded. The Military then ſeized ſome of the Ringleaders, and the Mob diſperſed. They, however, aſſembled again at Midninght, and the Magiſtrates thought it prudent to deliver up the Perſons they had taken. This Morning Letters were received by General Oughton, deſiring the Aſſiſtance of more of the Military, which are immediately to be ſent."

March 17. Yeſterday the Indemnity bill, the Weſt-India bill, the bill for naturalizing foreign Proteſtants, the Gunpowder bill, and 33 other public and private bills received the Royal aſſent, by virtue of a commiſſion under the Great Seal for that purpoſe.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, March 5.

"It is reported, that the Prince of Piedmont, eldeſt ſon of the King of Sardinia, will eſpouſe our Monarch's eldeſt daughter; and that the ſaid marriage will be celebrated at the ſame time with that of the Count D'Artois."

The Captain of a brig, arrived at Cherburgh, gives the following account: That a few days before he arrived there he paſſed a large Engliſh ſhip in the Engliſh Channel, and a few minutes after, he ſays, he ſaw her overſet and ſink, but could give her no aſſiſtance, and every ſoul on board periſhed.

The Right Hon. Lord Howe is appointed to ſucceed to the command of his Majeſty's ſhips deſtined for Jamaica, in order to relieve Admiral Rodney, who will come in the Princeſs Amelia.

Letters from Cornwall bring advice of their being, on account of the late diſturbances in that county, above a hundred thouſand pounds worth of tin in the ſtreets of Penryn, and other places, which the proprietors are not able to raiſe ſo ſmall a ſum as 500 l. upon.

A correſpondent at the Court end of the town informs us, that our M------y are at preſent in the moſt perplexing ſituation imaginable, occaſioned by the laſt diſpatches from the continent. The Pruſſian Monarch (whoſe ruling paſſion is to make himſelf a MARITIME POWER) now meditates the conqueſt of Swediſh Pomerania, and is on the point of marching a powerful army into that country. The French King, bound by the moſt ſolemn treaties to guarantee and defend all his Swediſh Majeſty's dominions, has demanded a paſſage through Hanover for an army, which is ready to march to the aſſiſtance of his ally the King of Sweden. If this paſſage is granted to the French troops, Frederick THREATENS to take poſſeſſion of the Electorate of Hanover; and thus, between the Black Eagle of Pruſſia and the Gallic Cock, our M------y may be fairly ſaid to be "between Hawk and Buzzard."

March 18. Yeſterday the Commons agreed to the Reports of the Amendments made to the occaſional Voter's Bill.

Ordered to be engroſſed.

About three the Speaker took the chair; and after ſome reports from Committees being brought up, Mr. Sheriff Lewes appeared at the bar, with a petition from the Lord Mayor and City of London, praying the Houſe would take into conſideration the preventing lotteries; which petition was ordered to lie upon the table.

Governor Pownal then roſe, and obſerving, that a Committee having long been nominated on the high price of proviſions, and nothing reſulted from it, moved, That the ſaid Committee might be diſcharged. He remarked, that it was very improper to keep the attention of the public fixed on a Committee, which neither had, nor could do any thing effectual: That they had reported an alteration to be made in the aſſize of bread, reſtoring it to that of the 8th of Anne, which might prove of good effect, if the people now would eat houſhold bread: That propoſitions had been made them for ſeveral remedies; among others, recommending a tax on horſes; but as taxes ought always to have for their object the actions of the people, and not their manners and cuſtoms, the Committee did not judge it a proper meaſure: That he was confident ſuch a tax would increaſe the evil, as might be ſeen from the increaſe of coaches ſince the tax on wheels: That a permanent corn bill for regulating exportation and importation being before the Houſe, which it was hoped would anſwer every good purpoſe that could flow from any regulations under that head, the leſs need was there of continuing the Committee in queſtion. Ordered, That the Committee on the High Price of Proviſions be deferred till next Wedneſday.

Lord Frederick Campbell then moved, that a Committee be appointed to take into conſideration the preſent ſtate of the linen-manufactory in Great Britain and Ireland. His Lordſhip obſerved, that this manufactory in Scotland had made very great advances, as from ſeven millions of yards to thirteen millions; that the Iriſh fabrics had advanced from eight to twenty five millions; and that the ſame manufactory in England had made an equal advance; but that lately all three were much on the decline; and ſo much, that he thought the cauſes of ſuch decline, and the remedies which might be applied, deſerved mature conſideration. That among other cauſes, he begged leave to mention the import of linen from Germany, which has of late increaſed conſiderably.

Lord North then ſtood up and obſerved, that it was very late in the ſeſſion for ſuch a Committee to be appointed; that they would have an immenſe buſineſs to go through, as the woollen, as well as the linen manufacture, muſt neceſſarily come before them, and be examined; that therefore he wiſhed the noble Lord might not expect or think of any reſolutions being taken this ſeſſion. One circumſtance he deſired to remark was, that a manufactory might by a war, or other cauſes, be run up to a height quite unnatural, and in which it could not be ſupported; that this was the caſe with the ſilk fabric, which had been ſo increaſed by the war, and afterwards by parliament, that at preſent the weavers were living by charity.

He was anſwered by Mr. Pulteny, who lamented that ſo great and important a fabric, which was in fact ſuperior to the woollen, ſhould be at once, and without diſguiſe, given up by the miniſtry; ſince it was too plain, from what came from the noble Lord, that nothing was meant to be done.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed.

Yeſterday an expreſs arrived by the Dutch mail at the Queen's Palace, from the Court of Mecklenburgh Strelitz.

After the breaking up of the Council yeſterday at St. James's, a meſſenger was ſent off with an expreſs to the Hague.

The Dove, Brown, from Briſtol to Boſton, is on ſhore at Kingſale, in Ireland, but there is hopes of ſaving both ſhip and cargo.

We hear from Rome, that a paſſage has been demanded through the Italian dominions for a body of French troops, who are going to penetrate into Germany, by way of Bergams.

They write from Cracow, that all the Imperial troops, lately quartered in that city, have ſuddenly left it by order from the Emperor, and have croſſed the Oder at Leipſic, in their way to meet the grand army near Breſlaw.

Advices are received from Marſeilles, that 7 ſail of the line of battle ſhips are fitting out at that port, all of which it is ſaid are intended for the Levant as ſoon as ready.

They adviſe from Amſterdam, that an embargo is laid on all Dutch veſſels at Harlem, Harlingen, and Helvoetſluys, in order to man a large fleet of 17 ſail, now fitting out at the Dutch Port.

They write from Leghorn, that Don Gabriel Saluza, commander of a Malteſe galley, had taken an Algerine corſair in the Archipelago, of 20 guns and 200 men, after a bloody engagement of 3 hours, in which one half of the Chriſtians, and all the Moors, but 19, were killed.

It is ſomewhat ſingular, that when Lord Townſhend gave a grand Maſquerade Ball at the Caſtle in Dublin, on St. Patrick's Day juſt 4 years ago, Lord Bellamont appeared in the character of Mars.

Lord Sandwich and the Honourable Mr. Charles Fox are now upon very good terms. Indeed it is hurtful to the nation when ſuch able men as theſe are at variance.

A Court of Common Council was held yeſterday at Guildhall, when a motion was made by Mr. Alderman Sawbridge, that Mr. Chamberlain be directed to pay out of the Chamber of this City a ſum not exceeding 2000 l. for allowing a bounty of 4s. per quarter for the firſt 10,000 quarters of foreign wheat of a certain quality, which ſhall be imported into the port of London, between the laſt day of March inſtant and the 30th day of June next. The ſaid queſtion was adjourned to the next Court, as cuſtomary in money matters.

March 19. Yeſterday Sir Watkin Lewes, one of the Sheriffs of this city, accompanied by the City Remembrancer, waited on his Majeſty at St. James's, to know when his Majeſty would be pleaſed to receive the Remonſtrance of his loyal Citizens of London, when Wedneſday next was appointed for that purpoſe. They were both moſt graciouſly received.

Mr. Sheriff Oliver being indiſpoſed, prevented his accompanying his colleague on the above occaſion.

Yeſterday, at a quarterly Court of the Bank of England, the dividend was unanimouſly declared as uſual at the rate of five and a half per cent. per annum. The Governor then told the Proprietors, that many unfair methods had been taken to depreciate and run down the ſtock of that Company; but that he had the pleaſure to aſſure them, by authority of the Directors, that their loſſes had been very inconſiderable, ſo as not in the leaſt to affect their dividend.

There are letters in town from Liſbon, which ſay, that two Poliſh Jews are apprehended there, on ſuſpicion of being concerned in ſetting fire to different places in that capital.

They write from Breſt, that a large Dutch fly-boat, of 500 tons, with naval ſtores from the Texel, had lately been wrecked in a hard gale of wind, near the iſle of Aix, and all the crew periſhed.

We have hitherto, from the beſt authority, been enabled to give the public a true ſtate of Lord Bellamont's ſituation; and, notwithſtanding the reports in ſome of the papers to the contrary, our readers may be aſſured, that his Lordſhip has reſted well for ſeveral nights paſt, and is now out of all danger; and that the Faculty, deſpairing of finding the ball, have determined to irritate the wound no further by ſearching for it, but to heal the orifice with all expedition.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, March 12.

"According to the laſt letters from Warſaw, the King of Pruſſia has delivered to that Court, by Mr. Benoit, his Miniſter there, a declaration which is extremely ſtrong, and in which his Pruſſian Majeſty ſays, among other things, "That he hopes the Diet, which is going to meet, will approve and ratify all that has paſſed hitherto with reſpect to Poland; but in caſe it ſhould happen otherwiſe, his Pruſſian Majeſty will not only retract the promiſes he has made, with reſpect to that kingdom, but will make the Polanders ſenſible that he is not to be offended with impunity; and that he can do without either their approbation or ratification, ſo that they will pay dear for their ill-timed obſtinacy, &c.

"We learn from Copenhagen, that there is nothing more to fear from Denmark, with reſpect to a rupture with Sweden, as was lately preſumed from the great armaments which that crown was making. His Daniſh Majeſty has ordered eight out of the twelve men of war that were fitting out to be diſarmed; and the four others are only to be employed in exerciſing the ſailors."

Wedneſday there was a very reſpectable meeting of gentlemen of property at the Crown and Anchor, in the Strand, in relation to tythes; when a ſtanding committee was appointed to form and carry into execution ſome equitable plan, for aboliſhing that tax.

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, March 9.

"His Poliſh Majeſty has aſſerted a part of his ſovereign prerogative, which it is probable will very ſoon determine his particular fate. Two of the Imperial Generals, and one of the Ruſſians, have taken the liberty to exact a tax from the inhabitants where their troops are quartered, and otherwiſe oppreſſed them in a very arbitrary manner; on their frequent complaints the King remonſtrated to the Generals, and at laſt to their reſpective courts, but finding all ineffectual, he at laſt iſſued orders for arreſting them, which was immediately performed, and they were conducted by a party of horſe to the caſtle of Siradia, where they now remain."

Lord Townſend, we are told, propoſed making a viſit to France, ſoon after his arrival here from Ireland; but the unhappy affair with Lord Bellamont prevented it at that time. Now he will not go till Lord Bellamont is perfectly out of danger, ſince there are ill-natured people enough that would attribute his departure to ſome other motive, in order to prejudice his Lordſhip's character.

A motion will ſoon be made, we hear, in a certain aſſembly, at the inſtigation of a Great Perſonage, for regulating duels, as follows: That every duel be fought with ſwords only, on the ſtage of one of the Theatres, and that any one may be admitted to ſee them, paying the price that is now paid at the oratorios at Drury Lane; the money ariſing from this kind of entertainment to be applied in ſuch charitable uſes, as may be agreed upon in the above aſſembly; and that duelliſts, who do not conform to this regulation, ſhall ſuffer death or baniſhment, as well as a confiſcation of their eſtates.

Glaſgow, March 8. An expreſs arrived here this day, informing the Magiſtrates of this city, that the Bailie and Merchants in Greenock had promiſed (if it was agreed to by the Merchants here) to give the riotous ſailors half wages from the time of ſigning the articles: But the ſailors now inſiſt upon full wages. The Maſtrates here have returned for anſwer, that they are to call a meeting of the Merchants to conſult about it, but in the mean time have ſent off an expreſs for more military. It ſeems to be the opinion of the ſenſible part of the Merchants here, that no compromiſe ought to be gone into with them, while they continue ſo tiotous, as they receive 30s. per month, which is 5s. more than they get either at London or Liverpool.

EDINBURGH, March 10.

Extract of a Letter from Orkney, February 19.

"It is ſaid in one of your Edinburgh papers, of date the 1ſt current, that the ſhip Laleham, Capt. Stoaks, from Virginia to Aberdeen, was loſt in the Orkneys, and all the crew periſhed: It is with pleaſure we can aſſure the public, that this is without foundation, as there have been no wrecks, nor any appearance of wrecks, on the coaſt of Orkney, for theſe twelve months paſt; except the ſhip Betſey, of Liverpool, Capt. Shaw, which was wrecked in December laſt, near the harbour of Stromneſs.

ST. GEORGE'S (in Grenada) March 27.

Yeſterday his Majeſty's ſhip the Lynx, Captain Scott, and the ſchooner Delight, a flag of truce, returned to this port, from Marguerita, and Cumana, on the Spaniſh Main, whither they had been diſpatched to claim ſome ſlaves, that had made their eſcape from Cariouacou, and other iſlands in this government; but, inſtead of meeting with that juſtice and civility which they had a right to expect, the Governors at both places, we are told, treated them with the greateſt haughtineſs and contempt, and refuſed to give them the ſmalleſt ſatisfaction."

ANNAPOLIS, April 29.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.

Extract of a Letter from London, March 18, 1773.

"As to public News, I know little of it; a War in Germany is expected; and ſome Regulations in India Matters, that will affect America, are talked of; one Meaſure under Conſideration is, to eſtabliſh India Warehouſes in America, where India Goods will be ſold in the ſame Manner they are here; but whether this will take Place or not ſeems uncertain: The Affairs of the Company are at preſent under Conſideration of the Houſe of Commons, and as the Quantity of Tea on Hand is immenſe, it is expected ſome Regulation will take Place, that will admit of its being ſent to America."

Haddonfield, April 26, 1773.

The Day before Yeſterday, about five o'Clock in the Afternoon, a Fire broke out in a Shed, adjoining the Houſe of Primus Marſh, an ancient Negroe, who formerly belonged to Joon Eſtaugh, and is now upwards of 90 Years of Age, and there being no Body preſent but him and his Wife, the Fire got to a great Height before the Town was alarmed, but the Inhabitants attending with their Buckets, and there being Water pretty handy, the Flames were ſoon extinguiſhed, without doing any conſiderable Damage to the Houſe. It was occaſioned by a Crack in the Oven. Philadelphia, Fourth-Month (April) 20, 1773.

WHEREAS there will be wanted this preſent year, in and near this city, above 2000 CORDS of Spaniſh white-oak, beech and hemlock BARK, for which good prices and ready money are given; it is to be hoped, that all perſons who have timber of thoſe kinds to cut, and are convenient to navigation or land carriage to this city, will be careful to do it in the proper ſeaſon and get the bark, as they will not only find their own advantage therein, but will alſo have the ſatisfaction of contributing to public utility, by furniſhing the manufacturers of leather with ſo ſcarce and neceſſary an article, and the bark, if kept dry, will receive no damage by keeping; a quantity thereof, in any perſon's poſſeſſion, may be always conſidered as ready caſh, and brought to market when it may be moſt convenient.

It is thought a large quantity may be got up Delaware, and very advantageous to thoſe, who are convenient to ſend it down in the Durham boats, or otherwiſe. ¶

By Captain COULSON, arrived at BOSTON, in a ſhort Paſſage from BRISTOL; we have the following Advices, viz.

RATISBON, January 14.

PEOPLE are impatient to know what will be the End of the great warlike Preparations making in Denmark and Sweden, notwithſtanding thoſe two Courts have declared they were only for the Security of their reſpective Eſtates. It is, however, well known, that the Miniſters of France and Spain have, by Order of their Courts, demanded of that of Vienna to know what Part it would take in caſe Sweden ſhould be attacked, as it was preſumed ſome Project was on Foot to be commenced next Spring. It is aſſerted, that the Court of Vienna anſwered, that it would remain neuter as long as it was compatible with her Intereſt ſo to do.

Warſaw, Feb. 10. The Grand Council of the Senate held their firſt Sitting the Day before Yeſterday, when between 30 and 40 Senators were preſent, and the chief Buſineſs tranſacted was reading the Anſwers of the different Powers to what the King wrote to them. An eccleſiaſtical Senator, actually under the Denomination of one of the three Powers, would have taken his Seat in the above Aſſembly, but the Miniſter of that Power threatened him in ſuch a Manner as obliged him to deſiſt from his Intention. Another Senator, finding himſelf in the ſame Circumſtances with the before mentioned Perſon, aſked the Miniſter for that Prohibition in Writing, that he might have wherewithal to juſtify his Abſence to the Nation. Such Proceedings as theſe but too ſenſibly ſhew what is to be expected from this Aſſembly, and that which is to follow it.

Conſtantinople, Jan. 18. Ali Bey, ſince the taking of Jaffa, hath likewiſe made himſelf Maſter of Jeruſalem.

Vienna, Feb. 5. A ſtrong Report prevails here, that the Electoral Troops of Saxony are taken into the Pay of France.

Copenhagen, Feb. 11. All the Captains and chief Commanders of the Royal Navy of Denmark, were ſummoned to appear before the Board of Admiralty, on the 8th Inſtant, when they received Orders to take in twelve Months Proviſion with all Speed. The Victualling Office had been previouſly appriſed of this, and the Orders were ſo ſtrictly attended to, that they began the ſame Day to take in Biſcuit, &c.

Bruſſels, Feb. 27. By Letters from Paris of the 19th of this Month we learn, that a Courier was arrived there from Vienna, charged with Diſpatches of the laſt Importance; for the Tueſday following Orders were ſent to the Colonels of eight Regiments in the Service of France, to repair immediately to Dunkirk with their Regiments, in order to complete them there. It is aſſured, that theſe Orders have no other Motive, than to give more Weight to the Demand which the Prince de Rohan has made, in the Name of his Court, to their Imperial Majeſties concerning Sweden. They add, that theſe Troops are to be embarked on board of Engliſh Ships.

Stockholm, Feb. 12. By the laſt Letters received from Eaſtern Dalecarlia we learn, that the Want of Bread is ſo great, that many Perſons are daily found ſtarved to Death in the Woods, Highways, and in the Houſes; and that this Want has cauſed ſo great an Emigration of the Inhabitants from that Province as to be viſible to every one. It was hoped that the Ordnance forbidding the Diſtillery from Grain would have put a Stop to this terrible Calamity, which has deſolated this Country for the laſt two Years: But the Brewers, who are at the ſame Time Diſtillers, though they are forbid to carry on the latter Buſineſs, buy up all the Corn they meet with, and have raiſed it to ſuch extravagant Prices, as to put it out of the Power of the poorer People purchaſing it.

Paris, March 1. Advice is received, that one of our Eaſt-Indiamen is loſt on the Coaſt of Madagaſcar, and two Thirds of the Crew either drowned or murdered by the Natives. It is melancholy to reflect on our Loſſes by Sea, which within ten Months paſt have been ſix Men of War of the Line, beſides other large Ships; and whether it is that the Engliſh have better Ships, or are better Seamen than we are, but we very ſeldom hear of their loſing a Man of War.

Cologne, March 5. Letters from Francfort mention, that a great Number of Tents are preparing, and Horſes buying, by Order and for Account of the French Court.

LONDON.

March 2. Letters from Stockholm ſay, conſiderable Offers have been made to engage our King to take Part in the preſent Diſputes; but, it is ſaid, he declares he will obſerve a ſtrict Neutrality.

By Accounts of the moſt reſpectable Authority from the Continent, we learn, that the Letters of Invitation to America increaſe to ſo great a Degree, that the Emigrations from hence exceed all Belief.

March 4. It is affirmed that a Perſonage of the firſt Diſtinction will ſoon appear at the Head of a Liſt of voluntary Subſcribers, who are determined to diſcountenance the Wearing of any French Silks, or other Commodities, which interfere with, or tend to diſcourage, the Manufactures of their own Country.

A private Letter from Hamburgh mentions the extraordinary Diligence uſed at preſent by the Ruſſians, as preparatory to ſomething more than carrying on the War againſt the Porte; and hinting that ſome of the Northern Powers will be involved in Troubles before the End of the Summer.

A Report prevails that a Britiſh Squadron, conſiſting of 6 Ships of the Line, and 2 Frigates, will make its Appearance in the Baltic before the firſt of June.

March 5. A Propoſal is on Foot for Leave to eſtabliſh Mints for Coining at New-York and Philadelphia.

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, March 2.

"His Pruſſian Majeſty has deprived the Gentry, and other Inhabitants, of the Territory of Waumira, in Poliſh Pruſſia, of the Right which they had (while under the Juriſdiction of the King of Poland) of being governed by their own Biſhop, who is a Prince of the Empire, and has taken them into his Majeſty's own Protection.

"The Waumeians loudly complain of the Injuſtice of this Act, and threaten to take up Arms in Defence of their ancient Rights and Privileges; but the Pruſſian King, ſenſible of the Danger of permitting them to riſe, has ordered a large Body of Troops to march immediately into the Territory, and take Poſſeſſion of Heilſburgh, Frawenburgh, Branenſburgh, and all the Places of Importance, determined to dragoon the Inhabitants into Compliance, as he has done thoſe of Dantzick, Thorn, &c."

March 6. The following Addreſs, it is ſaid, was ſent to the Prince of Wales, by the Stewards of the Society of Antient Britons; but it is apprehended it was not delivered to him.

"Moſt gracious Prince,

"The infinite Concern we feel for the Diſappointment which we have received, in not being permitted to approach your Royal Highneſs with our uſual Tribute of Reſpect and Attachment on the Day of our Anniverſary, induces us to take this Method of expreſſing our Loyalty and our Concern; and we flatter ourſelves, Sir, that if our Sentiments ſhould be communicated to your Royal Highneſs, our Zeal and Concern will appear in ſo ſtrong and meritorious a Light, that we ſhall not be deprived another Year of the Pleaſure and Honour which have been denied us this. In the mean while, we lament exceedingly that we ſhould be deprived of this Opportunity of pouring forth the Effuſions of the loyal and affectionate Heart, and of expreſſing in Perſon the ſincere and reſpectful Attachment of his Majeſty's loyal Subjects of the Principality of Wales, whoſe unalterable Zeal and Loyalty to their Princes ſtand recorded, and do Honour to the Page of Hiſtory. We wiſh, Sir, to take every Opportunity, as loyal and dutiful Subjects ought, to promote that Harmony and good Underſtanding which conſtitutes the Glory of the Sovereign and the Happineſs of the Subject, whoſe Intereſts are inſeparable: And ſorry we are that any Obſtacle ſhould be laid in the Way of ſo neceſſary an Union, by denying us the uſual Acceſs to our Prince, which is not denied by the moſt abſolute Monarchs. Whatever may be the true Cauſe of our Diſappointment, as we preſume it is altogether unmerited, ſo we look upon it as highly diſgraceful to the whole Principality, whoſe Inhabitants receive a mortifying Check at a Time, in which they thought their Loyalty and Attachment merited particular Attention and Encouragement, by ſetting an Example of Duty and Affection to the reſt of his Majeſty's numerous Subjects: An Example, Sir, which has long been wiſhed for and encouraged by Government until this Period. But although our Concern is as great as our Diſappointment is unmerited, no Event whatever ſhall leſſen our Loyalty and Attachment; and as a Proof of our Sincerity we offer up to Heaven our Prayers, that your Royal Highneſs may long, very long, enjoy your Health, and inherit the many Virtues of your Royal Father; and that every Day may greatly contribute to fill the Meaſure of a Godlike Ambition to ſecure the Hearts of a free and ſpirited People.

Signed by the STEWARDS, March 1, 1773."

There is nothing whatſoever that hath contributed ſo much to the frequent Bankruptcies, that have lately happened, to the Decline of Trade and Commerce, and to the Decay of Credit in general, as the pernicious Practice of Gaming in the public Funds. A Law hath long been wanted and deſired, that might put an effectual Stop to ſuch deſtructive Gaming, and no other Reaſon can be given, or gueſſed at, why ſuch a Law hath not been made, but that we have had a gambling Government. Perſons in Power, and their Creatures, have frequent Opportunities, eſpecially in Time of War, of knowing ſuch Pieces of News or Intelligence, as are likely to raiſe or fall the public Funds, ſooner than other People, and have, for many Years paſt, ſeldom failed of taking Advantage thereof, and gaining immenſe Sums out of the Pockets of the Public, by either buying or ſelling Stocks for Time, according to their early Accounts. And this ſeems to be the true and only Reaſon why our Rulers have not permitted a Law to be made, that might have effectually prevented ſuch infamous and iniquitous Gaming in the public Funds. But the long Continuance of this pernicious Practice hath now brought the Trade, Commerce, and Credit of the Nation into ſuch a Decline and dangerous Situation, that if a Law, that will put an effectual Stop to it, be not ſoon paſſed, they will all take their final Leave of this Country.

March 9. The new Alarms in Denmark are ſaid to be occaſioned by the hoſtile Preparations of a certain continental Power, which, like the great Alexander, ſeems to aim at univerſal Conqueſt.

The following uncommon Circumſtance is authentic: On Monday Morning, about 3 o'Clock, the Lady of a well known Gentleman, whoſe Name we are deſired not to publiſh, waked ſuddenly in a Fright, and ſcreaming aloud, alſo waked her Huſband. He deſired to know the Reaſon of her being thus alarmed, when ſhe told him, ſhe felt ſomething in her Hair behind alive. On ſearching, a poor innocent Mouſe was found, who, it is ſuppoſed, was invited there by the amazing Quantity of Powder and Pomatum. The Mouſe made its Eſcape, and no dangerous Conſequences enſued; which was very fortunate for the Lady, as ſhe is very far advanced in her Pregnancy.

The following is ſaid to be an exact Copy of the City's Remonſtrance, agreed upon in Common-Hall, March 11, 1773, as it was delivered to his Majeſty's Secretary of State, that a proper Anſwer might be prepared againſt the Day when the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, &c. are to preſent it in Form to his Majeſty.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs, Petition and Remonſtrance, of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of the City of London, in Common-Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious SOVEREIGN,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of the City of London, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the Reſpect becoming a free People, zealouſly attached to the Laws and Conſtitution of their Country, and the parliamentary Right of your Majeſty to the Crown of theſe Realms.

We deſire with all Humility, in the Grief and Anguiſh of our Hearts, to ſubmit to your Majeſty, that the many Grievances and Injuries we have ſuffered from your Miniſters, ſtill remain unredreſſed; nor has the public Juſtice of the Kingdom received the leaſt Satisfaction for the frequent atrocious Violations of the Laws, which have been committed in your Reign, by your Miniſters, with a daring Contempt of every Principle, human and divine. Your People have, with the deepeſt Concern, obſerved, that their former humble Petitions and Remonſtrances were received with a Neglect and Diſregard, very hardly brooked by the high Spirits of a great and powerful Nation; but the Hopes of Redreſs ſtill encouraging us to perſevere, we again ſupplicate your Majeſty to liſten to the Voice of your aggrieved Subjects, in Vindication of your own and the Nation's Honour, againſt your deſpotic and corrupt Miniſters, who have perverted the Fountains of public Juſtice, and undermined the Foundations of our excellent Conſtitution. Our Repreſentatives, who were choſen to be the Guardians of our Rights, have invaded our moſt ſacred Privileges. The Right of being repreſented in Parliament is the inherent, unalienable Privilege, as well as peculiar Glory of the freeborn Inhabitants of this Country; and a Perſon qualified according to Law, a Magiſtrate of this City, was duly elected a Knight of the Shire for the County of Middleſex, by a great Majority of legal Votes, yet has been excluded from the Houſe of Commons, by a Reſolution of that Houſe; and a Candidate, who had only a few Votes, declared the Repreſentative of the Electors of the ſaid County, againſt their Conſent.----Through the like corrupt Influence of the ſame Miniſters, the chief Magiſtrate, and one of the Aldermen of this City, were impriſoned, for not obeying the illegal Mandates of an arbitrary Houſe of Commons, and violating the ſolemn Oaths they had taken, for the Preſervation of the Liberties and Franchiſes of the Capital of your Majeſty's Dominions. We recal to your Majeſty's Remembrance, with Horror, that unparalleled Act of Tyranny, the erazing a judicial Record, in order to ſtop the Courſe of Juſtice, to introduce a Syſtem of Power againſt Right, and to tear up by the Roots Truth and Law from the Earth.

We therefore, your Remonſtrants, again ſupplicate your Majeſty to employ the only Remedy now left by the Conſtitution, the Exerciſe of that ſalutary Power with which you are entruſted by Law, the diſſolving of the preſent Parliament, and the Removal of thoſe evil Counſellors, who adviſed the Meaſures ſo generally odious to the Nation, and your Majeſty, as the true Guardian of our Rights, ſhall ever reign in the Hearts of a grateful People."

Several of Mr. Alderman Wilkes's Friends waited upon him the 13th Inſtant, and preſſed his going to St. James's, with the other Aldermen, to preſent the late Addreſs, Petition, and Remonſtrance to the King. Mr. Wilkes's Anſwer is ſaid to have been nearly in theſe Words:

Gentlemen,

YOU well know the Support I gave on Thurſday to the Motions in Common-Hall for the Remonſtrance, and the Engagement for ſhortening the Duration of Parliaments. I now feel a real Pain in declining to comply with the Solicitations of ſuch reſpectable Friends. As I have long been perſonally obnoxious to the King, I have not for many Years been to St. James's. It would now be rude and indecent to force myſelf into the Royal Preſence, on an Occaſion not the moſt pleaſing, I believe, to his Majeſty. I am not uſed to go into any Gentleman's Houſe, who does not wiſh to ſee me. The laſt Year, as Sheriff, it would have been the particular Duty of my Office to have attended the King with any Petitions or Remonſtrances, and I ſhould have obeyed the Commands of the City. I am now to be conſidered only as an Alderman. The Attendance of the whole Body is not neceſſary. No favourable Effect could poſſibly ariſe from my being with you at St. James's; and if the leaſt Diſturbance ſhould happen without, it would be conſtrued to be a premeditated Riot, the Guards immediately be ordered to fire among the People, and another Maſſacre enſue.

"I am not fond of the Air of a Court: It generally blaſts ſooner or later, and often nips, even in the Bud, our modern Patriotiſm. I ſhould be particularly unhappy at this Time to ſee my Sovereign ſurrounded almoſt entirely by the Enemies of our Country and his Family, and the Royal Smiles beaming on thoſe very Miniſters, againſt whom the City of London now petition and remonſtrate with ſo much Truth and Juſtice, while my Fellow-citizens were received with Coldneſs and Diſregard. My warmeſt Wiſhes, however, Gentlemen, will go with you, and may you meet with that gracious Reception and Succeſs, which your Cauſe and your Zeal ſo nobly merit."

March 22. The new Revenue Boards of Ireland ſtand thus:

Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms.	Commiſſioners of Exciſe.
John Bourk,	Richard Townſhend,
John Beresford,	Sir Francis Bernard,
John Staples,	John Monk Maſon,
Thomas Allean,	Robert Waller,
Charles Tottenham,	William Montgomery.
James Ager,
Robert Clement.

We are told that the Anſwer prepared to be given on a certain Occaſion is big with Reproof, for giving ſo much Trouble, and is ſaid to be levelled at ſome particular Leaders in the City, who are to be called Troublers of their Soverſign's and his People's Repoſe.

The third Reading of the Bill for the Relief of Proteſtants, diſſenting from the Church of England, will be on Thurſday next.

March 23. The Stadtholder has catched the Flame of Monarchy from the Swede, and he has invited the King of Pruſſia to inforce ſuch Doctrines in Holland. In return for this Service, he is to have a Seaport from the Dutch States. He is actually upon his March towards the Frontiers of Germany.

March 24. The Earl of Cheſterfield lies ſo dangerouſly ill that his Life is deſpaired of.

It is ſaid the French have taken the Advantage of the Diſcoveries which have been made by the Secret Committee of the Eaſt-India Company's Affairs, and are determined upon the Eſtabliſhment of a new Eaſt India Company by the French Court: The Plan has been ſo univerſally approved of by the Merchants in France, that in leſs than 15 Days the whole Subſcription Money was advanced and paid into the general Fund. The French King grants the new Company a Variety of Privileges and Advantages, far ſuperior to any other Aſiatic Company eſtabliſhed in Europe, whereby they will be enabled to underſell the Engliſh in Teas.

A great many Gentlemen of Property in England have formed a Society for promoting a Plan, for diſcontinuing the paying of Tythes, in Kind, and ſubſtituting a Pound Rate, to be levied in the Manner of parochial Rates on thoſe Lands which are liable to pay in Kind: They diſclaim any Intention of injuring the Revenues of the Church, or the Intereſts of any Individuals, and invited the Clergy to co-operate the Plan.------The Hardſhips under which the Farmer labours from gathering Tythes in Kind ("a laſt and odious Remains of the corrupt Syſtem of Popery,") has a Tendency to diſcourage Agriculture.

Governor Pownall gave it as his Opinion in the Houſe of Commons, that the "moſt likely Method of producing a ſufficient Supply of Corn had been neglected, viz. that of encouraging the Importation of it from our American Colonies."

The Aldermen, &c. who are to accompany the Lord Mayor to St. James's with the City Remonſtrance, are invited to Breakfaſt at the Manſion-Houſe on Friday Morning.

A Person just arrived from Cadiz says, that when he left that Place two Frigates of War, of 28 Guns each, only waited for a fair Wind to sail for the Havannah, with a great Quantity of Warlike-stores, especially Bombs. These are attended by three large Transports, laden with Guns, Anchors, Sails, and Cables, and are to take on board 600 Soldiers, drafted out of different Regiments. Several other Ships are freighting for the King's Account, to carry out 2000 regular Troops to Carthagena and Porto Bello, in the West-Indies.

Monday se'nnight upwards of 1000 Stocking-makers assembled together, and went to the House of Mr. Simpson, Hosier, in the Market-place at Leicester, where they demanded a Machine for making Stockings, which Mr. Simpson had in his Possession. After much Altercation, Mr. Simpson, to save his House and Property from being destroyed, gave up the Frame to the Resentment of the Stocking-makers, who carried it in Triumph along the public Streets, after which they totally destroyed it, and every one went Home. The above Machine had only three Motions, weighed about 25 lb. and worked one Third quicker, which was the sole Reason of the Stocking-makers destroying it, as Work would be more scarce, and at this time Hundreds are unemployed.

BOSTON, May 3.

By Letters from London we learn, that the Pamphlet, containing the Votes and Proceedings of the Town of Boston in November last, had been reprinted there, with a judicious Preface by the British Editor, and was well received by all the Lovers of Liberty; though, it is said, Lord D-------h has expressed it as his Opinion, "that the Resolves of the Towns of Roxbury, Marblehead and Plymouth (in Consequence of the Proceedings of this Town) contain very extraordinary Doctrines, but hopes there will be but few Followers of their Example; and that the Honourable House of Representatives would discountenance them."----In which, however, upon Receipt of further Accounts from hence, his Lordship will be very much disappointed.

Last Saturday was taken up and committed to Goal here on Suspicion, a Person answering the Description given of a Fellow who absconded from Philadelphia, and carried off a large Quantity of Gold, of 151. Weight, that he was entrusted with by Mr. Thomas Shields, Goldsmith, in that Place.

NEW-YORK, May 6.

We hear from Crown Point, that about Noon on Wednesday the 21st of April last, the Men being all out a fishing, at Chimney Point, the Commanding Officer, from a Summer-house, perceived a Fire breaking out at the Roof of the Barracks, in that Part next to the Store Bedding. He immediately ran to the Flag-staff, hoisted a Signal for the Men to come in, and ordered the Women out of the Garrison. Captain Anstruther and Dr. Miller exerted themselves to the utmost, but it was impossible to stop the Flames, which were risen to a great Height in the Store Bedding, and were soon communicated to the Magazine, which contained 25 Chests of Arms, 25 Stands in each Chest, and 99 Barrels of Gunpowder: In a few Minutes the Arms were destroyed, together with all the Mens Goods, &c. the Magazine blew up with a dreadful Explosion, and the Buildings, except some of the Stone Walls, were burnt and destroyed to their Foundations. The People all escaped unhurt.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.

On Saturday Morning, the 8th Instant, departed this Life, in his 47th Year, Mr. JOHN BAYNTON, late an eminent Merchant in this City; and on Sunday Evening his Remains were interred in Christ-Church Burying Ground, attended by a vast Concourse of his respectable Fellow-citizens of all Denominations.-----

Justly beloved by those who knew his Virtues in Life, there were certain Circumstances which made him to be lamented in Death, by all good Men. Inheriting his Father's amiable Qualities, he succeeded also (at 18 Years of Age) to his Estate; which he improved, in a Way that did him Honour, by an early and successful Application to Business; so that, for a Number of Years, Wealth continued to flow in upon him, and he was called to serve his Country as their Representative in Assembly, as well as in several other Offices of public Trust. But the vast and extensive Commerce into which he was induced to enter, during the last Years of his Life, was productive of such a fatal Reverse of Fortune to him, as need not be mentioned to the Public. Yet still, amidst his reiterated Losses, his private Character was held in the highest Esteem by his Fellow-citizens, and his Integrity stood unimpeached.------

He was naturally generous, humane, affable, courteous, facetious and hospitable. Incapable of Deceit himself, and unacquainted with those Vices which belong to the Worldly Man, no mean Suspicions of Deceit in others ever rose in his Breast. He was so sincere in his Friendships, that he was ever ready to sacrifice his own Fortune and Ease to the Service of those, in whom he placed a Confidence. In his religious Sentiments, he was truly catholic, and always manifested an earnest Desire, by Example, as well as by Instruction in his Family, to support the public Worship of Almighty God. As a Husband and Parent he was so truly affectionate and tender, that he long struggled in private with his Misfortunes, striving to maintain his usual Chearfulness and Serenity in his Family, that they might not receive Pain. But the tedious Suspense of his Affairs, his many Disappointments from Quarters where his chief Expectations were placed, and the daily View of a numerous unprovided Family around him, became too much for him to bear---and he at last certainly sunk under the mighty Weight; leaving to the Care of Providence, a most virtuous and amiable Widow, with twelve promising Children, into whose Minds he took great Pains to instil the Principles of Religion, and who, it is hoped, may do Honour to his Memory, by their Conduct, in whatever Sphere of Life it may be their Lot to act.

Juſt arrived in this City from London,

DR. WILLIAM DAY,

WHO, under God, undertakes to diſſolve the ſtone in the kidnies and bladder (be it ever ſo long ſtanding) without pain, anxiety or hindrance of buſineſs, or confining the patient to regimen of diet, and this by a medicine which is pleaſant to the taſte, and as agreeable to be taken as a glaſs of wine.--He has by a long courſe of practice experienced its virtue, and found it to anſwer, when the patients were thought incurable by any other method, but by cutting for its extraction. He has now by him a ſtone of about ſeven ounces weight, which was voided from himſelf by the alone help of his great and wonderful diſſolvent, after having tried for many years the moſt eminent profeſſors in Great-Britain and Ireland to no purpoſe.

He ſells and prepares pills, which wonderfully and with the greateſt expedition cure intermittent fevers, and thoſe agues which thoſe fevers proceed from; in the courſe of a long ſucceſsful practice he never found thoſe pills to fail. Likewiſe the famous and much celebrated Dr. Tiſſott's tincture for the fever and ague for thoſe who cannot take pills, which infallibly cures that diſorder.

He likewiſe prepares and ſells pills (by only taking one box, to which there is proper directions) that infallibly eradicate that painful diſorder the rheumatiſm.

His never failing worm cake, which deſtroys that vermin ſo pernicious to children, as well as adults, that many have through inattention loſt their lives by them; thoſe he prepares in a peculiar manner to himſelf, and have been found in virtue and ſafety to excel any of the ſort yet exhibited or adminiſtered for that purpoſe.

Of the Doctor may be had, his moſt incomparable and never failing pectoral drops, prepared by a tedious chymical proceſs by digeſtion, diſtillation and cohabitation, being a ſafe and ſpeedy cure for coughs, colds, aſthmas, phthiſick, wheezings, ſhortneſs of breath, and all ſorts of conſumptions, theſe drops inſtantly relieve the patient in the moſt ſuffocating fit of an aſthma, and make a perfect cure by continuing them for ſome time; in the courſe of thirty-five years practice they never once failed him, in the cure of the above recited diſorders, and are infallible in the chin cough or hooping cough in children; it is a great preſerver of the lungs, and immediately relieves in pleuriſies; this and many more virtues may be aſcribed to thoſe his reſtoring chymical drops, which for brevity ſake he paſſes over.

Sold and prepared by the Doctor, a liniment for ſore, red and inflamed eyes, much ſuperior to that called Sir Hans Sloan's; with this he has cured many whoſe eyes have been covered with opake films and cicatrices, left by inflamations and apoſtemes of the cornea; it is not only beneficial in ſuch caſes, but alſo, where there is an exceſſive pain in the eyes, ſhooting thence up into the head; many who were led to him, after ſome little time, could perfectly find their way without a guide,

The Doctor has taken a houſe in Vine-ſtreet, near Fourth-ſtreet, has his name on a braſs plate over the door, he has private and convenient lodgings for any who may put themſelves under his care; he cures a recent gonorrhea in a ſhort time, ſo as not to be known by a bed-fellow that the party labours under any ſymptom of the diſorder; a confirmed lues he cures without ſalivating, with all the circumſtances attending this diſorder, ſuch as the dyſury, ſtranguary and chordee, phymoſis, pharaphymoſis, chriſtallines, chancres, bubores, abſceſs in the peritonium, excreſcences and fiſſures about the anus, ſeminal weakneſs, old obſtinate gleets, in both ſexes.

He immediately eaſes all pains in the head and teeth, let them be ever ſo violent, without the leaſt trouble to the patient; ſuch Gentlemen and Ladies, who at any time may labour under thoſe excruciating pains, on ſending the leaſt notice, he will wait on them at their houſes. Perſons who are at ſuch a diſtance that their circumſtances wont admit of their perſonal attendance, may have the medicine adapted to their reſpective diſorders ſent them, with proper directions.

He has for ſale, Turlington's genuine balſam of life, Anderſon's true Scotch pills, with ſeveral other patent medicines, which he has brought with him from London, and ſhall ſell as low as any perſon in the city.

N. B. The Doctor gives attendance at his houſe, from eight in the morning till twelve o'clock, and in the afternoon, from two to ſix o'clock.

The poor well recommended ſhall be aſſiſted. ¶ 15.

Cheſter, April 24, 1773.

From the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE, for September, 1772.

Mr. URBAN,

HAVING read, in your Magazine of July laſt, a method of diet recommended in the Small-pox, to which the candid author ſubjoins his requeſt, that others may add any uſeful obſervation or information, which may have occurred on this ſubject; I ſend you the thoughts of the celebrated Van Swieten, publiſhed in the preface to the fifth volume of his Commentaries, and which, I think, muſt be agreeable and uſeful, eſpecially to ſuch of your readers as are employed in treating either the artificial or natural Small-pox; as the obſervations of this great man ſhew, that ſecurity in this diſeaſe is not to be depended upon from preparative medicines or noſtrums of any kind, but is to be obtained by expoſing the patients to, and giving them the advantage of breathing a pure, open, and unconfined air, and that this ſucceeds with very little alteration and few reſtraints in diet.

"The fame of inoculation wonderfully increaſing, I attended many through the whole courſe of the diſeaſe; and, from every thing which I obſerved, I ſaw that the preparatory methods might be ſafely omitted;---care always being taken, that healthy perſons only were inoculated.

"This was aſcertained by ſome phyſicians of Vienna, who inoculated infants within ſix hours after birth; in which caſe no preparation could have taken place: And other celebrated phyſicians, who were concerned in inoculation, are of the ſame opinion concerning preparatory medicines.

"Abſtinence from animal broths, and all other kinds of animal food, ſeeming too ſevere, ſome of theſe phyſicians thought proper to try if this ſtrictneſs was abſolutely neceſſary;---and, in the Orphan-houſe, ſituated in the ſuburbs of Vienna, no alteration of diet was ordered after inoculation, but the ſame diet, uſed by others, was continued without any harm.

"All of them enjoyed the open air throughout the day, and ſlept in large and lofty rooms well aired at night.

"Theſe phyſicians alſo tried afterwards if medicines were neceſſary after inoculation: For, Sutton having concealed his remedies, which he would have thought poſſeſſed of a ſpecific power in the Small-pox, no judgment could be formed of them; but I ſaw great numbers who were ſucceſsfully inoculated, and who uſed no medicine in the courſe of the diſeaſe.

"Their food conſiſted of broths, the fleſh of young animals, ſoft pot-herbs, ripe fruit, bread, farinaceous ſpoon-meats, and eggs.

"They all dwelt in a country palace, and all neceſſaries were ſupplied at the expence of the moſt auguſt Empreſs, who alſo ordered preſents to each of them, at the end of their diſeaſe.

"All of them were out in the garden every day for ſeveral hours in the forenoon and afternoon, but dined and ſupped in the houſe; one of the court phyſicians had the direction of them all, being appointed to this office.

"As I lived in a neighbouring place, I obſerved the courſe of the diſeaſe in fifteen young men, from the time they were inoculated, till they were perfectly cured.

"Every thing, that ſeemed worthy of notice in the inoculated Small-pox, being carefully obſerved and committed to writing, will ſoon be made public.

"But the inoculated as well as the natural Small-pox being contagious, the diſeaſe was ſoon ſpread in the country near the royal palace, and ſuch as were ſeized with it naturally, were taken into the palace, and all of them treated in the ſame manner, and with like ſucceſs.

"From whence ſome are of opinion, that if patients, ſeized with the natural Small-pox, were freely expoſed to the air, without taking many medicines, and without any very ſtrict method of diet, they might be cured as ſucceſsfully as thoſe under inoculation.

"I know one girl, who had the confluent Small-pox in the royal palace, along with the inoculated patients beforementioned, and who was carried into the garden every day as they were, and happily recovered.

"I have treated many very much loaded with the diſtinct Small-pox in the ſame method, with the beſt ſucceſs.

"Byſtanders were amazed to find ſo great a diſeaſe cured in a way ſo ſimple."

Simplex Veri Sigillum.

THE Miniſter from the King of Pruſſia preſented, the 24th of laſt Month, a Memorial reſpecting his Pretenſions to the Towns of Weſel, Emmerick, Orſoy, Rees, and Rouderick, in the Duchy of Cleves, under the Dominion of this Republic. Theſe Pretenſions, as well as thoſe of the Elector Palatine to a like Claim, are at leaſt a Century paſt, and the Sum demanded is ſtated at 4,141,667 Florins of Holland. This is not the firſt Time of making the above Demand; the Pruſſian Miniſter having in 1766 preſented a Memorial on the ſame Subject, and another in 1770. The States General gave an Anſwer to it in 1771, and this now preſented is the Reply. The Pruſſian Miniſter makes the ſtrongeſt Inſtances for Payment, giving for a Reaſon the Calamities occaſioned by War. He has offered to the States General to leave it to Arbitration, if their High Mightineſſes ſhould chooſe rather a direct Accommodation.

Paris, March 12. The only deſign which the French Miniſtry ſeem now to pay an attention to, is extending their commerce, and ſettling it on a ſure foundation. Devoted wholly to this real patriotic meaſure, they have an intent of reducing the army, and appropriating the money thereby ſaved to the ſupport of trade, and have already taken off ſeveral burthenſome taxes, both on the exports and imports, which amounted almoſt to prohibition, and in ſeveral other reſpects have made moſt material alterations. Thus encouraged and patronized even by the King, who warmly intereſts himſelf in theſe regulations, France may in time vie in extenſive trade and commerce even with England herſelf,---and, it is much to be feared, in ſome branches will far exceed her.

Archangel, March 3. A veſſel, built of whale-bone and ſkins of fiſhes, has been driven aſhore near this place, with ſome ſavage people on board, who ſpeak a language, unintelligible to the Laplanders and the Samſy Indians, and by ſigns intimated they came from towards the North-Pole.

LONDON.

March 11. We hear from Berlin, that his Pruſſian Majeſty is going to eſtabliſh in that City an Office, under proper Directors, for aſſiſting Merchants and Traders, who ſhall be ſtraitened, through unavoidable Loſſes, to keep their Credit. The Money is to be advanced without any Intereſt.

They write from Gibraltar, that a Hamburger, laden with 400 Barrels of Gunpowder, and 90 Tons of Lead, had fallen into the Hands of a Barbary Corſair in the Mediterranean, and was carried into Larache.

We have Advice from Paris, that the French Court have lately publiſhed an Ordinance to recal all their Subjects from out of the Dutch and Ruſſian Services.

A private Letter, received late on Tueſday Night from Spain, ſays that the Spaniards are preparing a Fleet of 10 Men of War of the Line at Ferrol, which are to cruiſe in the Mediterranean and Archipelago.

Orders are iſſued for ſending a large Body of Troops to his Majeſty's Garriſons of Gibraltar and Minorca, and two of the oldeſt Regiments are ordered there.

Advices from the Hague ſay that it was very confidently reported there, that the Pruſſian Monarch has concluded a very private Treaty with the Court of Verſailles, which is likely to cauſe ſome farther Commotions in the North.

Orders are given at the War Office for making up the Accounts of the Army in Great-Britain and Ireland, for the Inſpection of the Caſhier General; as alſo for a general Muſter and Return of his Majeſty's Forces in Great-Britain, Ireland, and the Iſles, with all Expedition.

A Correſpondant, who ſeems to enter with uncommon Preciſion into national Maters, obſerves, that whenever the People of England are brought to their Senſes, they will confeſs that their Patronage of Foreigners was the Corner Stone of their own Deſtruction.

Notwithſtanding what is ſaid to the contrary, from ſome unexpected Intrigues and Cabals, it is now believed the Death of his late Sardinian Majeſty will produce ſome very formidable Revolution on the Continent.

Letters from Holland ſay, the States have received the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances that the Court of Verſailles is meditating ſome hoſtile Invaſions.

March 17. They write from Warſaw, of the 1ſt inſtant, that 14 of the principals of the late confederacy had lately arrived there, among whom is the Count Wolſkie, for whom the King had formerly a very great regard, but that they had been refuſed a reſidence in the city, being conſidered rather as ſpies from a certain quarter.

A report prevails, that his Majeſty's birth-day is appointed for receiving the two Royal Dutcheſſes in form at Court.

March 19. We learn from Cracow, that the Grand Marſhal of Poland, and great Numbers of the Nobility, &c. have proteſted againſt the Diviſion of the Kingdom, and refuſed to take the Oaths of Allegiance to the three Powers.

They write from Vienna, that the Emperor has given Orders for another large Body of Troops to march for Poland.

Letters from the North of Ireland ſay: "Our Linen Manufactory ſuffers greatly from Emigrations to North-America, where it is ſaid there will ſoon be Occaſion for all that come."

It is obſerved, that the deferring the Petition relative to the Price of Corn and Proviſions, may have a good Effect: Thoſe who are either ſtarved or hanged will not want its Aſſiſtance.

March 22. Five hundred poor farmers, belonging to the North of Ireland, are preparing to embark for America.

March 24. The intended reduction to 38 men each company, in the Foot-guards, is laid aſide; grim-viſaged war will ſoon require augmentation rather than reduction; the ſyſtem of nations is at preſent too much convulſed, to ſuffer the leaſt diminution of good King George's forces.

We can aſſure the public, that the half-pay of Col. Iſaac Barre has not been taken from him, but he enjoys it as amply as ever he did.

The two iſlands of St. Vincent and Tobago, it is ſaid, will be made ſeparate governments. The Captains of the Royal Navy, impatient under the command of a certain Nobleman, at the head of the Admiralty Board, are petitioning the throne for his removal, "alas! poor Montagu, men of all ſorts take a delight to gird at thee."

Twenty thouſand a year are to be ſettled on each of the Royal Dukes, before the prorogation of Parliament, with a reſerve, in proportion to any iſſue they may have by their Dutcheſſes.

The appointment of his late Royal Highneſs, the Duke of Cumberland, was only 15,000l. a year, as a Prince of the Blood; but an augmentation of 25,000l. per ann. was voted ſome time afterwards, in conſideration of the Duke's military ſervices.

Many are the difficulties preſented, in fixing a general ſettlement of the ſeveral degrees of currency in the plantations, for the future regulation of the Exchange, yet the deſign is ſtill under contemplation.

The French and Spaniards are preparing to ſeize on the Piedmonteſe, but they will be oppoſed with great firmneſs by the new Sovereign, who inherits the ſagacity and courage of his father the great Amadeus; he is forty years old, and very capable of ſecuring the means for preſerving his territories from the condition of the ill-fated diſmembered Poland.

The affairs of Meſſrs. B. and F. are made up, and that very reſpectable houſe now goes on, to the general joy of the whole city.

The French Ambaſſador has demanded the mediation of Great-Britain, between his Maſter and the mighty Frederick, relative to Dantzick; the latter has modeſtly laid a new tax on all their corn-mills, which occaſioned great diſorders in that city.

An action happened the 21ſt of January laſt, near the capital of the Crimea, between 3000 Ruſſian troops, and 16000 of the mutinous Coſſacks, who gained a compleat victory, killed upwards of 1200 Ruſſians, and made 600 priſoners.

GLASGOW, March 11. We are glad to inform our Readers that the late Diſturbances among the Sailors at Port Glaſgow and Greenock are now entirely ſuppreſſed, and that Buſineſs is now going on again at theſe Places as uſual. About 30 of the Ringleaders are apprehended, Part of whom were laſt Night brought to Paiſley under a ſtrong Guard, and are expected in Town this Day. The ſpirited Conduct of the Sheriff, and prudent Meaſures of the Inhabitants, rendered the Aſſiſtance of the Dragoons unneceſſary, and contributed not a little in bringing this alarming and dangerous Inſurrection to ſo ſpeedy a Concluſion.

Extract from a Dublin Paper of the 12th of March.

"Duels upon duels ſeem to prevail throughout his Majeſty's dominions; there have been two in particular, within this week, in this kingdom.---One of them between Col. Jephſon and the eldeſt ſon of Sir John Colthurſt; in which the latter received a ball in his thigh, which was ſoon extracted, and he is in a fair way of recovery.---Mr. Colthurſt is young enough to be the Colonel's ſon. The other was between Beauchamp Bagnell, Eſq; a gentleman of 14,000l. per annum, and Thomas Kelly, Eſq; In this duel, which was fought in his Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, both parties were wounded. Mr. Bagnell received a ball in his right arm, which was immediately extracted, though it is thought he will loſe the uſe of it. Mr. Kelly received a fleſh wound in his ſide, from which not the leaſt danger is apprehended." In conſequence of theſe, and many other recent inſtances of duelling, the following was publiſhed in the Dublin Gazette:

---------Though I am Native here,
And to the Manner born, it is a Cuſtom
More honour'd in the Breach than the Obſervance.

HAMLET.

GENTLEMEN,

THE recent inſtances of Duelling are no ſmall reproach to any people, who pretend to underſtand the laws of humanity.---Strange it is, that where chriſtianity is profeſſed, and we boaſt of juſtice and civilization, there ſhould be ſuch marks of Gothic barbarity remaining. To point out the deformity of this rude cuſtom ſhall be the ſubject of this letter. The ſubject has been, indeed, often treated upon, and the ſavageneſs and inhumanity expoſed; but, ſince ſo little impreſſion has been made, that the practice remains a-la-mode, it may be ſeaſonable to renew the remonſtrance, and to hold up again that mirror, which reflects the hard features of Duelling.

I do not expect to prevail much on minds of that ſupercilious caſt, which can look upon a challenge to the piſtol or ſword as a proof of honour, or as a mark of courage: To attempt to convince ſuch men will be only ſpilling water on the ground. But yet, to propagate an indignation on the duelliſt, by pouring diſgrace on duelling, may ſoon weaken, if not put quite out of countenance, the ſavage cuſtom.

A ſpirit of duelling is no other than a ſpirit of revenge, gilded over with the ſpecious covering of a principle of honour. The motive is nothing more than ſome inſult or affront, either real or fancied, that has raiſed a fever in the paſſions of the offended, and he demands ſatisfaction. Undoubtedly all real injuries ſhould be redreſſed in all caſes, where it can be done conſtitutionally, with the ſafety and peace of ſociety; and, if the laws are wholeſome and ſalutary, they will make proviſions for repairing injuries ſuſtained in our perſons, properties and reputation. But no civil laws can admit the aggrieved party to admeaſure the mulct, or to adjudge the penalty; ſince this would overturn all order, and throw confuſion on the political ſyſtem.

In reply to this, the duelliſt will object, "the law has made no proviſion in matters of mere perſonal affront, where damages are not proveable; and, therefore, the ſword or piſtol is proper to decide the controverſy." But pray, may it not be aſked; how is it that the ſword or piſtol does decide?---Is that ordeal an infalible means of determining the right of the caſe? Are the combatants aſſured that thereby the injured party will be redreſſed? No! he has not an abſolute aſſurance; becauſe the aggreſſor often eſcapes in the encounter. Has he then a probability that the ſword or piſtol will make a fair deciſion? No; for the fate of the combat will, moſt probably, fall on him who has the leaſt ſkill or addreſs in the uſe of either. And, in as much as each aim at the vitals of the other, no kind of appeal is made to any equitable judge, but ſolely to their own revengeful ſelves.

In this appeal, theſe delicate ſons of honour take upon them the offices of both an arbitrary judge, and a mercileſs executioner. But, in performing thoſe parts, Judge Jefferies was not more obnoxious to ſociety in the weſtern circuit; and in all common executions, Jack Ketch has far more merit in putting on the halter, or in ſtriking the axe on the necks of thoſe perſons who are put into his fatal hands; for he does not diſpatch the condemned criminal with a wild, unrelenting fury, or with a ſpirit of revenge; but he ſolicits the priſoner to conſider him as only doing his office, needful to ſuch a miniſter of the civil magiſtrate.

We may alſo obſerve, that ſuch is the deformity of the duelliſt, that, in his appeal to the ſword or piſtol, he inſults not only the authority of all human laws, but even the majeſty of heaven itſelf. For what is his aim? To take away human Life---the prerogative of God alone. It is one of thoſe properties in which, we are aſſured, he claims an abſolute right; and allows it not to be at the diſpoſal of any man whomſoever, when not forfeited to the community; whereas, both the ſuicide and the duelliſt do boldly invade the divine province, and preſume to diſpute with the Deity his unalienable claim.

I do not imagine that an argument drawn from the impiety of the action ſhould have much weight in this age of levity and diſſipation, and therefore I will beg to turn the reader's eye upon the example ſet by the duelliſt.----Would this man of modern honour have his conduct to be underſtood, as diſplaying the virtuous, the brave or the heroic? Or would he have us think ſuch a uſe of his weapon, a proof of his having a very delicate ſenſe of honour; and, as ſuch, an example worthy of imitation? Pray what would be the conſequence of mankind forming ſuch a judgment of his expedient?---Why nothing leſs horrid than this,----every man upon receiving any perſonal affront, or injury, muſt immediately put himſelf into a like diſtempered condition, and demand ſatisfaction.---But would not this open upon us a moſt hoſtile, bloody ſcene? ---Where, and what would ſtop the deſtruction.

Probably the duelliſt will ſay "the expedient only becomes the fine Gentleman; the man who, from family and fortune, can fancy himſelf in handling the ſword or piſtol."----But if the appeal to either is a proof of virtue and bravery in him, why will not ſome ſimilar combat be as proper in any other man, who can uſe thoſe weapons with as much addreſs? The proof of virtue and bravery is by no means, of any force, ſince thoſe daring heroes who can tilt at the lungs of one another, are uſually found to be very little acquainted with the principles of true honour. They do not ſo much as form one juſt idea of the rights of humanity: They never diſcover any diſcernment of the dignity of human nature: They do not contemplate the ſoul of man, as made in the image of God! If they did, they would not once dare to ſpill the blood of any man.

True honour is a perfect ſtranger to revenge, for it imports that greatneſs of mind which can bear affronts and inſults with an unmoved preſence, and an undiſturbed calm: conſcious of its own innocence and integrity, it can look down on the brutal, the rude, or the indecent man, either with a ſuitable pity, or a generous ſmile of contempt; well knowing that revenge is not the province of any created being whatſoever, and that vengeance can only become the arm of Omnipotence. SIDNEY.

NEW-LONDON, May 7.

Captain Melally from Guadaloupe, informs, that the Day before he ſailed from Point Petre, a Man of War arrived there from Old France, with Orders that no Engliſh Veſſel ſhould trade at that Place, without a Permit from the Governor.

NEWPORT (RHODE-ISLAND) May 10.

Laſt Friday the Lower Houſe of Aſſembly of this Colony unanimouſly came into the Meaſures propoſed by the patriotic Houſe of Burgeſſes of Virginia; and appointed the Speaker, the Hon. Stephen Hopkins, Eſq; Mr. Moſes Brown, John Cole, William Bradford, Henry Marchant, and Henry Ward, Eſquires, a Committee, to obtain the moſt early and authentic Intelligence of all ſuch Acts and Reſolutions of the Britiſh Parliament, and Meaſures of the Miniſtry, as may relate to, or affect, the Britiſh Colonies in America; and to maintain a Correſpondence and Communication with the other Colonies, reſpecting thoſe important Conſiderations. They are alſo directed to requeſt of his Honour the Governor, a Copy of the Commiſſion to the Judges of the Court of Enquiry, ſaid to be held in this Colony, and of all ſuch other Papers as were laid before the ſaid Court, as he can conſiſtently give; and to lay an Account of their Proceedings, from Time to Time, before the Houſe.

The Speaker is requeſted to tranſmit an Account of theſe Proceedings to the Speaker of the Houſe of Burgeſſes in Virginia, and to the Speakers of all the other Houſes of Repreſentatives in North-America.

Laſt Wedneſday the Cruiſer Sloop of War, Capt. Howe, ſailed on a Cruize, though we don't hear of any openly avowed ENEMIES on the Coaſt.

NEW-YORK, May 13.

Some time ago one SARAH WILSON, who attended upon the Hon. Miſs Vernon, ſiſter to Lady Groſvenor, and maid of Honour to the Queen, having found means to be admitted into one of the royal apartments, took occaſion to break open a cabinet, and rifled it of many valuable jewels: For which ſhe was apprehended, tried, and condemned to die, but through the gracious interpoſition of her miſtreſs, her ſentence was ſoftened into a tranſportation, ſhe accordingly, in the fall of 1771, was landed in Maryland, where ſhe was expoſed to ſale, and purchaſed by Mr. W. Devall, of Buſh-Creek, Frederick County; after a ſhort reſidence in that place, ſhe very ſecretly decamped, and eſcaped into Virginia, travelled through that colony, and through North to South-Carolina, when at a prudent diſtance from Mr. Devall, ſhe had aſſumed the title of the Princeſs Suſanna Carolina Matilda, pronouncing herſelf to be an own ſiſter to our ſovereign lady the Queen, ſhe had carried with her clothes that ſerved to favour the deception, had ſecured a part of the jewels, together with her Majeſty's picture, which had proved ſo fatal to her; ſhe travelled from one gentleman's houſe to another under theſe pretenſions, and made aſtoniſhing impreſſions in many places, affecting the mode of royalty ſo inimitably, that many had the honour to kiſs her hand; to ſome ſhe promiſed governments, to others regiments, with promotions of all kinds, in the Treaſury, Army, and in the Royal Navy. In ſhort, ſhe acted her part ſo plauſibly, as to perſuade the generality ſhe was no impoſtor. In vain did many ſenſible gentlemen in thoſe parts exert themſelves to detect, and make a proper example of her, for ſhe had levied heavy contributions upon ſome perſons of the higheſt rank in the Southern colonies, but at length appeared the underwritten advertiſement, ‡ together with Mr. Michael Dalton, at Charles-town, raiſing a loud hue and cry for her ſerene highneſs; but the lady had made an excurſion a few miles to a neighbouring plantation, for which place the meſſenger ſet out, when the gentleman who brought us this information left Charles-town. How diſtreſſing to behold a lady of this exalted pedigree and pretenſions, thus ſurprized into the hands of her inexorable enemies.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, a convict ſervant maid, named SARAH WILSON, but has changed her name to Lady Suſanna Carolina Matilda, which made the public believe that ſhe was his Majeſty's ſiſter, ſhe has a blemiſh in her right eye, black roll'd hair, ſtoops in the ſhoulders, makes a common practice of writing and marked her cloaths with a crown and a B. Whoſoever ſecures the ſaid ſervant woman, or takes her home, ſhall receive five piſtoles, beſides all coſts and charges,

WILLIAM DEVALL.

I entitle Michael Dalton to ſearch the city of Philadelphia, and from thence to Charles-town, for the ſaid woman.

Captain Lyell, arrived at Amboy from Barbados, in Lat. 28, 52, Long. 51, fell in with the Wreck of a new Ship, Lumber loaded, with all her Sails and Rigging gone, Decks blown up; had a Man Head, and the following Words wrote on her Companion, "We are all well, and gone to Liverpool in a Brig."

Extract of a letter from Kingſton, in Jamaica, April 1.

"The 16th of laſt month was hanged at Spaniſh-Town, one James Hutchinſon, the moſt deteſtable and abandoned villain, that ever diſgraced the human ſpecies. He was a native of North-Britain; and had a penn in Pedro Valley, in St. Ann's Pariſh: When any of his neighbours cattle ſtrayed on his lands, he always ſecured them as his own, and by that means had acquired a little fortune, and it is imagined that many people had been murdered by him for demanding their property, and this conjecture ſeems but too well founded, as you will obſerve in the ſequel. As Mr. Callendar (whoſe land joined Hutchinſon's) had loſt a Jack-Aſs, and ſeeing him in this wretch's paſture, went to him and requeſted that the Aſs might be turned in the highway, when he would take care he ſhould treſpaſs upon him no more. Hutchinſon told him this command ſhould be immediately complied with, and when Callendar had turned his back and was going away, the villain took up a gun, and killed him on the ſpot. A man then lying ſick at Hutchinſon's, hearing the report of a gun, crept out of his bed, and aſked what firing that was, and ſaid, I believe you have ſhot the man that I heard enquiring about the Aſs. The villain replied, go inſtantly to your bed, or I will ſerve you the ſame ſauce. The ſick man however in the courſe of the evening, found means to get privately out of the houſe, and immediately lodged a complaint, upon which Hutchinſon was apprehended, and by the information of one of his negroes, the place was diſcovered where he had conveyed the head of Callendar, and where near twenty other human ſkulls were found, the body was thrown in a cockpit (as is here called) a place deemed inacceſſible, being down a perpendicular rock, that had been ſplit by an earthquake, or ſo formed by nature, the bottom of which could not be diſcerned, hanging however upon a point of the rock which jetted out, the unfortunate man's body was ſeen, and well known by his choaths; by ſome daring contrivance, a perſon went down a conſiderable length, and diſcovered a great number of human bones, but no ſkulls, ſo that it is to be ſuppoſed, this mercileſs villain had always taken off the heads of thoſe he had murdered, in the ſame manner he did poor Callendar. At his trial, he had ſeveral of our moſt eminent counſel to plead for him, and during the whole time from his commitment to his execution, he behaved with the greateſt inſolence; he employed the whole day before he died, in writing, and told the people he had made his own epitaph, and left 100l. to have it engraved on his tomb ſtone. It is long, and ill wrote, but he concludes it in theſe words, ſpeaking of the Court and Jury,

Their ſentence, pride, and malice I deſy,
Deſpiſe their power, and like a Roman die.

James Hutchinſon, hanged at Spaniſh Town, the 16th of March, 1773, aged forty years. Thus was the world rid of this deteſtable and moſt execrable monſter.

May 17. Thurſday laſt Captain Raynolds arrived here from Surrinam, in 26 Days, who informs us, that the Diſturbances with the Negroes at that Settlement was ſettled by a ſmart Engagement, in which many of them were killed and made Priſoners. The 10th Inſtant, Capt. Raynolds ſpoke with a Sloop, from Cape-Nichola for Boſton, in Lat. 35:27, and the next Day with a Sloop, from North-Carolina for Boſton alſo.

The Schooner Conſtant Friends, John Riddle, late Maſter, arrived here from Bermuda laſt Wedneſday. The 4th Inſtant, in Lat. 34:50, Long. 70:12, by the jibing of the Main-ſail Capt. Riddle was knocked overboard, and notwithſtanding he had immediate Aſſiſtance, and never went under the Water, having got hold of a Hen-koop that was thrown to him, he was juſt expiring before he could be taken up by three of the Crew, who at the Riſque of their Lives went in the Boat to his Relief; which Boat was afterwards ſtove to Pieces along-ſide, and it was with great Difficulty they got the dead Body on board the Schooner, which was the next Day interred in a watery Grave.

PHILADELPHIA, May 19.

On Tueſday, the 11th inſt. departed this Life, in the 24th Year of her Age, univerſally beloved and lamented, Miſs POLLY M'CALL; and on Wedneſday Afternoon her Remains were interred in Chriſt Church Burying-ground.

This amiable young Lady received from Nature an elegant Perſon joined with an excellent Underſtanding: Theſe were improved by a polite Education and a proper Intercourſe with Company. Her uncommon Share of good Senſe early procured her the Attention of the Grave and the Wiſe, and her lively and delicate Sallies of Imagination----her Propriety of Expreſſion and peculiar Gracefulneſs of Behaviour, rendered her agreeable and captivating to the Young and Gay of both Sexes. To the Circle of her Relations and Friends, ſhe was endeared by many ſtill more engaging Qualities. Her Heart was formed in a peculiar Manner for Friendſhip, Steady---warm and ſincere in all her Attachments, ſhe ſeemed to riſe above thoſe common Obſtacles, which ſometimes ſeparate Minds of a leſs noble Nature. Theſe ſingular Accompliſhments received new Luſtre from her Behaviour during a painful and tedious Illneſs. Chearful while all were ſad around her---unmoved at the Proſpect of her approaching Diſſolution, and perfectly reſigned to the divine Will, ſhe met the King of Terrors with a Chriſtian Fortitude, and expired with that Hope of a bleſſed Immortality, which effectually diſarmed Death of its Sting, and robbed the Grave of its Victory.

On Thurſday laſt was married at St. Peter's Church in this City, the Rev. Mr. THOMAS COOMBE, to Miſs SALLY BADGER.

A MINERAL WATER hath lately been diſcovered in a Lot of Ground, at the Corner of Sixth and Cheſtnut-ſtreets, in this City. From the moſt accurate Experiments, made by different Gentlemen of the Faculty, it appears to exceed in Strength any chalybeat Spring yet known in the Province. It hath already proved of great Service to ſeveral Perſons, afflicted with Diſorders, in which Waters of this Quality have generally been uſeful. Such a Diſcovery may therefore be juſtly conſidered as a Matter of great Importance, as chalybeat Waters are known to be peculiarly efficacious in many Diſeaſes, which reſiſt the Power of every other Kind of Medicine. The Gentleman who owns the Lot, with a View of rendering this Diſcovery more convenient and generally uſeful, hath allowed an indigent Perſon, who will at all Times attend, to deliver it to the Poor gratis, and to others for a trifling Conſideration.

Captain Davis, from St. Croix, on the 7th Inſtant, in Lat. 25:17, Long. 68:2, ſpoke a Sloop, from Barbados for Virginia, out 11 Days; the next Day, in Lat. 26:37, Long. 68:50, ſpoke the Schooner Britannia, Captain M'Farlin, from this Port for Jamaica, out 12 Days; and laſt Thurſday, about 13 Leagues from our Capes, he ſpoke a Sloop, Captain Shewell, from this Port for Antigua, all well.

The Captains Simmons and Allen are arrived at Barbados from this Port.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Penſacola to his Friend in Pennſylvania, dated March 16, 1773.

"I have the Pleaſure to inform you, that the Affairs of this Province now wear the moſt agreeable Aſpect. Government is at length made ſenſible of the great Importance of the Harbour of Penſacola, and we are informed the Parliament will this Seſſion grant a conſiderable Sum to fortify and ſecure it. You know it is the only ſafe one, capable of admitting large Ships, from Cape-Florida to the great River Miſſiſippi, and that a Paſſage from Penſacola to Havanna is performed in 5 or 6 Days, to Campeachy in 8, and La Vera Cruz in 10.

"Prejudice and Miſrepreſentation have greatly retarded the Settlement of this Province; but now we begin to ſurmount their ill Effects. The Lands of the Miſſiſippi, and the Healthfulneſs of the Climate, are ſo perfectly inviting, that Emigrants from the Northern Colonies are daily taking up Lands there, and improving them, ſo that in a very few Years I hope to ſee in that Part of Weſt Florida, the moſt opulent Settlement of any in Britiſh America.

"If we look forward, and conſider the immenſe Length of the River Miſſiſippi, the amazingly fertile Country it paſſes through, the great Number of large navigable Rivers that fall into it, on both Sides, we may venture to foretell that ſome where on its Banks, ſome Day or other, will be the greateſt trading City of the Univerſe. Should not every one, who wiſhes to provide for his Poſterity, ſecure Tracts of Land, while it may be eaſily done, near the Banks of that River.

"General Lyman's Explorators have been here, and ſailed again for the Miſſiſippi; and as they cannot but report favourably of the Country, it is thought that the Tract of Land granted to them, will be ſettled from New-England in a ſhort Time. Their Grant does not come down as low as the inchanting Country of the Natches."

Trenton, May 14, 1773.

THE public is hereby cautioned to beware of counterfeit HALF JOHANNESES, which are now paſſing; they are dated 1743, are ſomething larger than the true ones, thicker in the middle than on the edge, and are ſo well done as may, at firſt ſight, deceive the niceſt eye. A certain Andrew Boyd, a genteel likely young man, has been detected in paſſing two of the aboveſaid counterfeits, was purſued and overtaken, but made his eſcape, leaving behind him a horſe, ſaddle and bridle, with a pair of ſaddle-bags; he is well known in many parts of New-Jerſey, as a very great gambler; a conſiderable number of half johanneſſes were ſeen with him. He is about 5 feet 8 inches high, had on a brown broadcloth coat, buff coloured jacket, and buckſkin breeches, beaver hat, black hair tied behind; the horſe, ſaddle and bridle, with the ſaddle-bags, are now in the poſſeſſion of the ſubſcriber, in Trenton, to whom the ſaid Boyd paſſed one of the aforeſaid counterfeits, and from whom he made his eſcape, on Sunday, the 9th inſtant. LONDON.

March 9. An Engliſh ſhip, employed in the Greenland fiſhery, has ſailed ſo far as to the 84th deg. N. conſequently was not more than ſix degrees from the pole, where are united all the meredians of the earth. The ſea at this latitude was found calm, free from ice, and might be navigated with the greateſt ſafety. We are aſſured that in conſequence of this eſſay, which is moſt certainly fact, ſome Engliſh gentlemen (among whom is Mr. Bankes, already known by his voyages) are determined to ſail this year towards the pole, from whence they intend to attempt to ſail weſtward, towards America, and particularly to try to gain the coaſts of California.---If another nation, equally anxious for the glory of diſcoveries, ſhould attempt to terminate the voyage of Baron de Benioſki by the way of Kamtſchatka, two paſſages may be diſcovered inſtead of one, and there may probably be found two routs to the Indies by the north, as there are already two by the ſouth, one by the Cape of Good Hope, and the other by the way of Cape Horn.

We learn from Roſſes, in the county of Donegal, in Ireland, that a Daniſh man of war, called the North Crown, commanded by the Baron D'Ulfeldt, arrived off thoſe iſlands, from a voyage of diſcovery towards the pole. They ſailed from Bornholme in Norway, the 1ſt of June, 1769, with ſtores for 18 months, and ſome able aſtronomers, landſcape painters, and every apparatus ſuitable to the deſign, and ſteering N. by E. half E. for 37 days, with a fair wind and open ſea, diſcovered a large rocky iſland, which having doubled, they proceeded W. N. W. till the 17th of September, when they found themſelves in a ſtrong current, between two high lands, ſeemingly about ten leagues diſtant, which carried them at a prodigious rate, for three days, when, to their great joy, they ſaw the main land of America, that lies between the moſt weſterly part of the ſettlements on Hudſon's river and California. Here they anchored, in a fine cove, and found abundance of wild deer and buffaloes, with which they victualled; and ſailing ſouthward, in three months got into the pacific ocean, and returned by the Streights of Le Maire, and the Weſt-India iſlands. They have brought many curioſities, particularly, a prodigious bird, called a contor, or contoſe, above ſix feet in height, of the eagle kind, whoſe wings, extended, meaſure 22 feet 4 inches. After bartering ſome ſkins with the country people, for meal, rum, and other neceſſaries, they ſailed for Bremen, to wait the thaw, previous to their return to Copenhagen.

March 13. On Sunday morning was married, at laſt, to the ſurprize of the whole neighbourhood, a Gentleman of Weſtminſter, to Mrs. Mary --------, a maiden Lady of the ſame place. It is very remarkable that this couple have been no leſs than three times to church before, upon a ſimilar errand, and always returned bachelor and virgin. The laſt diſappointment aroſe from a bickering about the day for receiving company, which laſted till the carriage ſtopped at the church porch, by which time they became ſo mutally diſcontented, that deeming themſelves all unfit for ſo cordial a ceremony as the matrimonial one, they agreed to poſtpone the matter, till they could acquire a more halcyon diſpoſition. It is preſumed they ſucceeded in this, as they were finiſhed at the time above mentioned, at St. Mary Axe, at the particular inſtance of the Lady, whoſe partiality for her own name induced her to preſage a favourable omen from the preſidency of the female ſaint.

There is now living at Nora, in Sweden, a woman ſurrounded with more family cataſtrophes than any we recollect to have heard of. Her father was found dead in a ſtreet at Stockholm; her mother unfortunately ſtabbed herſelf with a knife with which ſhe was at work; ſhe had three huſbands, the firſt was executed for having murdered her brother; her ſecond huſband was killed unfortunately ſoon after marriage; and the laſt, to whom ſhe was married 20 years, was alſo killed. Her youngeſt ſon was drowned; and her eldeſt ſon, on account of ſome criminal behaviour, obliged to fly his country. She had four daughters, who cauſed her much ſorrow; ſo that this woman has been unfortunate from her birth to this period, when a child, parent, and wife; and is now, in her old age, reduced to a ſtate of want. This account, we are aſſured, is ſtrictly true.

March 23. It is ſaid that the Ruſſian and Pruſſian Ambaſſadors have each of them demonſtrated very ſtrenuouſly, by order from their reſpective courts, againſt the concluſion of the treaty, which has been for ſome time negociating between our court and the courts of Verſailles, Madrid and Liſbon, which ſtill retards the ratification thereof.

From authority, ſo truly reſpectable as to render the fact paſt diſpute, we are deſired to acquaint the public, that the triple alliance between Great-Britain, France and Spain, has been long upon the tapis, but is now finally and concluſively ſettled. This alliance is entered into, in order to form a counterpoize againſt the northern confederacy, and was ſuggeſted as the beſt expedient in the ſcheme of politics, for preſerving the European ballance of power.

The following is ſaid to be a true State of Lord Bellamont's preſent Situation: On Monday Se'nnight, at which Time the additional Increaſe of Swelling and Fever abated, his Lordſhip's Wound being probed, the Probe ſtruck againſt ſome Body, very deep in the Fleſh, which produced a metallic Sound; upon which his Lordſhip immediately requeſted that the Gentlemen of the Faculty would introduce the Directory, and proceed to cut to the Point; from this they endeavoured to divert his Lordſhip; but he having peremptorily demanded, whether their Objection proceeded from Want of Certainty as to the Situation of that Body on which the Probe ſtruck, or from the Impracticability of arriving at the Body without certain Danger? they candidly told his Lordſhip, that if they were fully convinced the Ball lay there (which was not the Caſe) they could not venture to cut to it for Want of a proper Channel, the Wound being ſo much cloſed, that it was with the utmoſt Difficulty they could introduce the ſmalleſt Probe. Lord Bellamont made Anſwer, that with reſpect to the Situation of that Body, he would truſt to the Teſtimony of his own Feeling; that whether it was the Ball, or any other extraneous Subſtance, the Wound could never be ſolidly healed until it ſhould be removed, that the Knife muſt therefore be aſſiſted by the Cauſtic, he being determined that the Wound ſhould not cloſe until they had arrived at that Body, and immediately pointed out the Direction in which the Cauſtic ſhould be applied, which was accordingly done twice a Day, until Sunday Morning, with the deſired Effect, by which Time the Wound was ſo large as to admit being ſearched to the Bottom with the Finger, and ſo deep, that, from certain unerring Symptoms, the Gentlemen declared to his Lordſhip they muſt not proceed any deeper with the Cauſtic, the hard Body having appeared to be now lying cloſe to the ſurface of the Bottom of the Wound. Lord Bellamont requeſted they would proceed to ſearch for it with the Knife, when, to the great Aſtoniſhment of Mr. Adair, who performed the Operation, it proved to be a griſly Subſtance, which had formed itſelf very far below the Point of the Rib. The Form of it was round, and ſo hard and ſonorous, that when the Knife came to the ſurface of it, Mr. Adair, and every Perſon preſent, called out that he was actually cutting upon the Ball. The Situation of it was ſo critical, and from its Depth ſo immediately adjacent to the oblique Muſcles that incloſe the Peritoneum, that Mr. Adair did not venture to uſe any other Directory than his Finger, for which he made Way with the Cutting-knife little by little, which cauſed the Operation to laſt ſome Minutes. When it was finiſhed, Lord Bellamont thanked the Gentlemen for having gratified him in his Conjecture, which, though it did not terminate in finding the Ball, had, he believed, given a Piece of Information full as material to his Recovery as the finding of it would have been, and told them, that as he was now ſatisfied he had acquitted himſelf with reſpect to the Search for the Ball, he would give himſelf no farther Trouble about it, or them, nor any farther Interruption in their Treatment of him.---The Gentlemen have not yet come to a Determination as to what might have produced this extraordinary Subſtance, it being ſo much below the cartilaginous Part of the Rib, and ſeparate from it, but are inclined to think that it proceeds from an Injury, which from the firſt Moment they declared that the Rib had ſuffered, and which had been confirmed by this laſt Operation, which has expoſed the Rib to view.

Lately died, near Cork, in Ireland, James M'Donald; he was 117 years and two months old, and of uncommon ſtature, being ſeven feet ſix inches high. When in health, he could eat four pounds of ſolid meat at a meal, and drink in proportion of ſtrong liquor, without being intoxicated. His limbs were larger than his height required; and his hands and fingers ſeemed of that prodigious ſize, that a lady's bracelet might have ſerved him for a ring. He was formerly ſhewn for profit; but that way of life obliged him to be much confined; and his health requiring a good deal of exerciſe, he took to the leſs profitable employment of a ſoldier, and ſerved as a grenadier till after the rebellion.

March 25. Yeſterday afternoon died, at his Houſe in Hertford-ſtreet, May-fair, the Right Hon. Philip Dormer Stanhope, Earl of Cheſterfield, aged 78 years. His title deſcends to Maſter Philip Stanhope, a minor, about eighteen years of age, now at Liepſic Univerſity.

The 3d inſt. died at Vienna, Prince Poniatowſki, brother to the King of Poland, ſaid to be in conſequence of his troubles on account of the ſituation of his native Country; his Lady arrived time enough to take her laſt farewell of him.

Letters from Paris ſay, that the Court of Verſailles only wait to receive ſome advices from the French Ambaſſador at Vienna, after which that Court will declare itſelf an enemy to the three united powers.

We are informed that the Empreſs of Ruſſia has offered two diſtinguiſhed Lawyers of this Country very great Sums, for forming a code of laws, for the better regulation of her Kingdom.

Extract of a Letter from Genoa, February 22.

"The Marquis de Maruzzi, Ambaſſador from the Empreſs of Ruſſia to the Imperial Court of Vienna, has juſt arrived here on the buſineſs of negociating a loan of 3,000,000 florins, for the ſervice of the Empreſs; and likewiſe to ſettle the articles of a treaty of commerce between the Republic and the Court of Peterſburgh, which we hear is greatly in favour of the Genoeſe.

"Three Malteſe frigates and a galley have lately put in here, with four Turkiſh prizes, which they took after a very ſmart engagement of ſeveral hours, off Barcelona. Several Turks of diſtinction were on board, and the cargoes are eſteemed at four millions of florins."

Letters from Vienna ſay, "The Jews will be ſufferers by the diviſion of Poland, and undergo a diſmemberment with the country. Many arts were cultivated, and moſt of the trade carried on by theſe people, who were become exceeding numerous; but they are all ordered out of the country, and the King of Pruſſia has actually ſent a number of phyſicians, ſurgeons, and apothecaries, into Poliſh Pruſſia, to ſucceed the Jews who followed their profeſſions."

March 27. Yeſterday at Two o'Clock the Lord Mayor, attended by Mr. Serjeant Glynn, Recorder, Alderman Bull, Mr. Sheriff Lewes, City Remembrancer, Common Serjeant, Town Clerk, 8 of the Livery, and the reſt of the City Officers, went to St. James's, where the Recorder read to his Majeſty the Addreſs, Petition and Remonſtrance, from the City of London: To which his Majeſty was pleaſed to give the following Anſwer.

I HAVE the Satisfaction to think that my People do not doubt of my Readineſs to attend to their Complaints, or of my ardent Deſire to promote their Happineſs, which I cannot more effectually do, than by reſiſting every Attempt to ſow groundleſs Jealouſies among them.

Your Petition is void of Foundation, and is beſides conceived in ſuch diſreſpectful Terms, that I am convinced you do not ſeriouſly imagine it can be complied with.

Thurſday laſt the following petitions were preſented to the Houſe of Commons, and read, viz. A petition of the Miniſters and Congregations of Diſſenters from the Church of England, reſiding in and near Liverpool; a petition from the Diſſenters at Durſly, in Glouceſterſhire; and a petition from the Diſſenters Meeting at Wotton-under-edge, in the county of Glouceſterſhire, ſetting forth that a bill is depending, for an alteration to be made in ſubſcription to the articles of the Church of England, which, if paſſed into a law, the petitioners apprehend will undermine the eſtabliſhment of religion in this kingdom, under the act of toleration, and, therefore, praying that the ſaid bill may not paſs. Counſel was heard at the bar of the Houſe upon the ſaid petitions, and againſt the bill; and, after a long debate, the Houſe divided, on the bill's paſſing 63, againſt it 14.

Yeſterday a mortifying fray happened between Dr. Goldſmith, the author of the new comedy, called She ſtoops to conquer, and Mr. Evans, the publiſher of the London Packet of the 25th. The Doctor, it ſeems, thought himſelf injured by ſome paſſage in the Packet, and calling upon the publiſher to reſent the inſult, took an opportunity, while Evans was looking over the paper in queſtion, to lay his cane over the Bookſeller's ſhoulders. The compliment was immediately returned by the Welſhman, and a bloody battle enſued, in which the Doctor received two black eyes, and was otherwiſe much bruiſed. When the engagement was over, Mr. Evans called a conſtable, and inſiſted that the Doctor ſhould be carried to the Compter; but a brother author, who was preſent, interpoſing, led Dr. Goldſmith to a coach, and thus ended the fray.

Briſtol, March 27. The many failures that have happened ſince the laſt ſummer, in Great-Britain, have occaſioned an incredible jealouſy and diſtruſt to prevail amongſt all ſorts of people, and now the country gentlemen have withdrawn their large ſums of money, that were conſtantly depoſited in the ſmall banks of this city, New-Caſtle, Hull, Nottingham, Birmingham, &c. &c. reſolved to be their own caſh keepers; and what is ſtill more alarming, the notes and bills iſſued by the Bank of England, are peremptorily refuſed when tendered for payment, ſo that there is now no circulation of that currency. During the rebellion in 1745, when bank paper was thus ſlighted, the monied people of London aſſociated and ſubſcribed an agreement to ſupport the credit of the bank, and to take its notes and bills as freely as the current coin of the Kingdom.

BOSTON, May 10.

Wedneſday laſt the freeholders and other Inhabitants of this town met at Faneuil-Hall, for the choice of Repreſentatives, the number of voters were 419. The Hon. Thomas Cuſhing, Eſq; had 418 votes; Mr. Samuel Adams, 413; Hon. John Hancock, Eſq; 417; William Phillips, Eſq; 416.

After the above gentlemen were declared to be duly elected, Mr. Samuel Adams was choſen moderator, in order to tranſact the other matters mentioned in the warrant for ſaid meeting.-----A Committee was then appointed to prepare inſtructions for the Repreſentatives, who reported in the afternoon the following draft, which was unanimouſly accepted by the town, and ordered to be publiſhed.

To the Hon. Thomas Cuſhing, Eſq; Mr. Samuel Adams, the Hon. John Hancock, Eſq; and William Phillips, Eſq; Repreſentatives for the town of Boſton,

GENTLEMEN,

BY the renewed ſuffrages of your brethren of this town, you are once more called upon to repreſent them in the General Aſſembly: The unanimity ſo conſpicuous in your election at this important juncture, affords the ſtrongeſt teſtimony of the confidence the people repoſe in your approved abilities, and inflexible attachment to their conſtitutional rights.

Your conſtituents have beheld, with indignation, that purpoſed neglect, and inſolent contempt, with which the Repreſentative body of this people have been regarded by adminiſtration. A total inattention to the privileges of the commons in America, has diſgraced almoſt every tranſaction that materially affected the colonies: A clandeſtine, capricious and deſtructive mode of government, couched under the ſpecious umbrage of inſtructions from Majeſty, has been uniformly adopted, and wantonly exerciſed for ſeveral years paſt, thereby rendering the Aſſemblies of commons throughout the colonies, mere cyphers in the conſtitution: For this reaſon, gentlemen, we were almoſt diſcouraged from renewing the choice of members, as INEFFECTUAL for the ſeveral purpoſes, for which they were originally ordained; but ſtill retaining that reſpect to good and orderly government, which has ever diſtinguiſhed this metropolis; agreeable to the charter, which on our part remains inviolate, we once more recommend the important concerns of this aggrieved people to your vigilance, wiſdom and integrity; in confidence that you will regard with jealouſy your own conſtitutional power and importance, of which the honour and welfare of this people ſhould render you extremely tenacious; that you will vigorouſly oppoſe any encroachments on your ancient privileges, and never will betray your conſtituents, by ſurrendering thoſe powers of framing laws and taxes for the people, to any uſurper under heaven.

The conſtitutional mode by which legiſlation and taxation are conducted in Great-Britain, being nothing more or leſs than the exerciſe of the power of the people by their Repreſentatives; this form of government is extended by ſacred compact to the Engliſh dominions in America, therefore the privileges and powers of the commons of this colony reſpecting legiſlation and taxation, are to all intents and purpoſes, as full, expreſs, and uncontroulable within the colony, as thoſe uſually exerciſed by the commons of Great-Britain, within the realm, and alike ſubjected to the reviſion of the King: Theſe powers and privileges were ſecured to our anceſtors by ſolemn covenant between them and the King of England, and perpetuated by the charter to their lateſt poſterity: From the free and full enjoyment of theſe original rights of Engliſh ſubjects, we are determined never to recede; and although they have been repeatedly and daringly invaded, the hand of oppreſſion ſhall never induce us to relinquiſh our title to freedom: We ſtill perceive with indignation, that the Governmental powers of legiſlation and taxation, by arbitrary claim, are aſſumed, and vigorouſly exerciſed by thoſe who by their local ſituation can have no adequate knowledge of our circumſtances, no kindred feelings in our diſtreſſes, and when ſwayed by a corrupt influence, may impoveriſh, weaken and enſlave us.

To the numberleſs grievances flowing from this iniquitous ſource, which we have already frequently and fruitleſly complained of, we may juſtly add, a ſtipendary ſoldiery, ſtationed and continued in the chief fortreſs in the metropolis of this colony, by the inexorable enemies to our free conſtitution: Standing armies have for ever made ſhipwreck of free ſtates, and no people jealous of their liberties, ever patiently ſuffered mercenary troops to be quartered and maintained within their populous cities; the militia of the colony are its natural and beſt defence; and it is an approved maxim in all well-policed ſtates, that the ſword ſhould never be entruſted but to thoſe who combat pro aris et focis; and whoſe intereſt it is to preſerve the public peace. We cannot, therefore, but reſent theſe ſtanding troops within our capital cities, as the appointed executioners of tyranny; and prepared inſtruments to maſſacre the defenceleſs citizens, at the nod of any maſter, who may have authority to appoint or diſcharge, reward or puniſh them.

Thus armed with brutal force, the enemies to our freedom perſevere with alacrity, to complete their infernal plan of enſlaving America: The above atrocious violations of right, juſtice, and the conſtitution, are ſucceeded by the penſioning our Governor, the Juſtices of the ſuperior court, &c. which in effect is bribing them on the ſide of deſpotiſm: Thoſe who by their ſeveral offices, ſhould be the aſylum of public ſecurity and liberty, are no longer the objects of confidence and regard with the people; we cannot but eſteem them as ſubordinate tyrants, entruſted with a rod to ſcourge us, and ſuppreſs that ſpirit of freedom, which is the glorious characteriſtic of America. While they are thus purchaſed with ample ſalaries, extorted from the colonies by Great-Britain, we muſt be jealous of a corrupt influence, whenever an arbitrary meaſure of government is to be carried, or a claim of right ſubjected to the deciſion of our courts of juſtice.

We ſhall not recapitulate the black catalogue of abuſes which the colonies have been ſubjected to for ſeveral years paſt; that we have ſuffered them ſo long, is diſgraceful to us: But we cannot paſs over in ſilence the late extraordinary and formidable innovation in conſtituting an arbitrary court of inquiſition, which has lately aſſumed juriſdiction within our ſiſter colony of Rhode-Iſland, in direct violation of all law and juſtice; who arrogate the enormous power to tranſport ſuppoſed offenders to a remote kingdom, to be capitally arraigned for offences committed within that colony. Agreeable to the conſtitution of the colonies, ſaid court, in the exerciſe of ſuch extravagant powers, are to be held in the ſame contempt and deteſtation with a Banditti of ſlave makers on the coaſt of Africa. We therefore expect you make due enquiry into a meaſure ſo truly alarming, and proteſt againſt every exertion of lawleſs power, which threatens the ruin of the colonies.

Harraſſed and provoked by ſuch repeated abuſes of power, we eſteem it our indiſpenſible duty to demand redreſs; to your wiſdom, to your fortitude, we commit ourſelves, not doubting you will readily purſue ſuch meaſures, as have a tendency to relieve us in the moſt eaſy and effectual manner; for this purpoſe we recommend to your ſerious conſideration, whether an application to the Engliſh colonies on this continent, correſpondent to the plan propoſed by our noble patriotic ſiſter colony of Virginia (which in our opinion is a wiſe and ſalutary propoſal) will not ſecure our threatened liberties, and reſtore that mutual harmony and confidence between the Britiſh nation and the Engliſh colonies, ſo important to both, eſpecially the former, which, if reſcinded from her connections with this continent, muſt eventually fall a prey to her numerous and jealous neighbours.

We have likewiſe the moſt ſanguine expectations that a union of councils and conduct among the colonies will aſſuredly, by the ſmiles of heaven, fix our rights on ſuch a ſolid baſis, as may intimidate our implacable enemies from any future attempt to invade them.

Atteſt. WILLIAM COOPER, Town-clerk.

The meeting ſtands adjourned to Tueſday next at 3 o'clock afternoon.

May 17. At a meeting of the inhabitants of this town, at Faneuil-Hall, by adjournment, the 14th inſtant, the following was voted, nem. con.

WHEREAS it has been reported, That certain perſons, juſtly obnoxious to this town and province, are to be invited to dine with the Governor and Council, on the enſuing Anniverſary Election-Day, in this Hall.------Be it Reſolved, and an inſtruction to the Gentlemen Selectmen, that if a Committee of his Majeſty's Council ſhall apply to them for the uſe of this Hall to dine in, they conſent upon theſe expreſs conditions, That neither the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, and their attendants, nor the Officers of the Army and Navy, ſtationed here for the purpoſe of enforcing unconſtitutional Acts of Parliament by Military Execution, be invited.-------It being utterly againſt the inclination of the town, that even one perſon, who has rendered himſelf inimical to the rights of America, ſhould be admitted into the Hall upon ſuch an occaſion.

Upon a motion made, voted, That the Gentlemen Selectmen be directed to wait on the Chairman of the Committee of Council, with an atteſted copy of the foregoing vote.

Alſo voted, That the aforegoing be publiſhed in the ſeveral News-papers. Atteſt. WILLIAM COOPER, Town-Clerk.

Captain Clift, who arrived here laſt week, informs, that on the 2d of May, in lat. 36:50, long. 69, he diſcovered the wreck of a veſſel about two leagues from him, which he bore away for, and it proved to be a ſloop about 80 tons; her jib and fore ſtay ſails, and all her ſmall rigging were gone; her boom was laſhed in the crotch; her ſides were painted yellow, quarters green, and red quarter deck; her hold was full of water, had one water caſk on deck, but no perſon on board. Her pumps were rigged, and her maſt ſtanding.

NEWPORT (RHODE-ISLAND) May 17.

Laſt Thurſday, by a Veſſel in 12 Days from St. Nichola-Mole, in the Iſland of Hiſpaniola, we received Advice that a French Frigate lately arrived there from Old France; that immediately upon her Arrival, all the Veſſels in that Port were ſearched with the greateſt Severity, and the following were taken into Cuſtody, viz. Brig Charlotte, John Fryers, Maſter, Brig Freelove, Allen Brown, Maſter, Brig Charlotte, Mark Anthony D. Wolf, Maſter, and Sloop Cæſar, Thomas Forreſter, Maſter, all of this Port; Schooner Eunice, Nath. Davis, Maſter, and Brig---Captain Hudſon, both of Boſton; Brig -----, Captain Gordon, of Marblehead;---a Sloop and a Schooner, belonging to Meſſrs. Shaddling and Co. of Virginia; Sloop St. Andrew, Captain Roach, of New-York; Sloop ------- Captain Crippen, of Philadelphia. The Captain of the Frigate had tranſmitted the Particulars of their ſeveral Cargoes to the General at Port-au-Prince, and as they conſiſted of ſuch Articles as were inadmiſſable by their Laws, it was apprehended they would all be confiſcated. We alſo hear, by the ſame Veſſel, that many others were taken into Cuſtody in the different Ports of that Iſland.

NEW-YORK, May 20.

Tueſday, May 18th, being the day appointed for the annual commencement of the graduates of King's College, in this city, a very numerous and ſplendid audience aſſembled at Trinity Church. After prayers, and a Latin ſpeech by the Preſident, an elegant ſalutatory oration was delivered, with great propriety of pronunciation and gracefulneſs of action, by Mr. Frederick Philipſe. The audience was then entertained with a diſcourſe, on the happineſs of a connubial life, by Mr. Beverly Robinſon; whoſe juſt obſervations on the ſubject did him much honour. The kind and meaſure of diverſions, which may be with innocence enjoyed, were ſtated in a very accurate and agreeable manner by Mr. Shreve, in an elegant oration, which he delivered with much propriety. An entertaining diſcourſe, on the pleaſures of refined converſation, was then pronounced by Mr. Bogart. Mr. Nathaniel Philipſe, next, delivered an accurate and animated Latin oration, on the fatal effects of licentiouſneſs. Mr. Luſh then entertained the audience with an elegant diſcourſe on taſte, which was received with much applauſe. The pleaſures of retirement, and a contemplative life, were then deſcribed in a very agreeable manner by Mr. Harris. Mr. Pell then delivered, with much propriety, an entertaining oration on humanity.

Degrees were after this conferred on the following Gentlemen: Beverly Robinſon, Frederick Philipſe, Nathaniel Philipſe, Cornelius Bogart, and Thomas Shreve, B. A. Jabez Doty, M. B. John Ray, Peter Van Schaak, Philip Pell, Richard Harris, James Creighton, Stephen Luſh, William Hubbard, and Rev. John Marſhall, M. A. Rev. Harry Monro, Albany, M. A. Rev. Joſeph Lamſon, Fairfield, M. A. Rev. John Stewart, Mohawk Caſtle, from Philadelphia, M. A. Iſaac Hunt, Eſq; Philadelphia, M. A.

The buſineſs of the day was concluded with an elegant and animated oration on ambition, delivered by Mr. Creighton, with great Propriety, and with that earneſtneſs and warmth, which never fail to intereſt the paſſions of the hearer. The attention and approbation ſhewn by the audience were highly honourable to him.

In ſhort, it could not but have been delightful to every lover of his country, to ſee the fair ſigns of future excellence, which were given by the young Gentlemen, in general, on this occaſion.

May 24. Wedneſday laſt was held a Convention, in this City, of the Epiſcopal Miniſters of the Provinces of New-York and New-Jerſey; on which Occaſion a Sermon was preached at Trinity Church, by the Rev. Mr. Sayre.

Captain Martin, in 22 Days from Tortola, informs us, that Sir Ralph Payne, General of all the Leeward Iſlands, lately paid a Viſit to that Iſland, regulated their Laws, gave Orders for building a Church, and eſtabliſhed a Clergyman there. The 16th Inſtant, Captain Martin ſpoke with a Whaler, bound for Rhode-Iſland, that had taken 170 Barrels of Oyl.

Laſt Week three Gentlemen, all born in this Province, met together in this City, whoſe Ages amounted to 248 Years, each of them hearty and well.

ANNAPOLIS, May 20.

Laſt Friday was held the Election for this City, when Meſſieurs William Paca, and Matthias Hammond, were choſen by a very great Majority of the Freemen, indeed, without any Oppoſition; much was expected, as Mr. Anthony Stewart had long declared himſelf a Candidate for the City, even before a Vacancy by the Reſignation of Mr. Hall, whoſe Friends in the County inſiſted upon his taking a Poll there. Mr. Stewart's private Character juſtly recommended him to the Eſteem of his Fellow-citizens; but as he was originally propoſed to turn out Mr. Hall, or Mr. Paca, who ſtood high in the Eſteem of the People, and as a ſtrong Suſpicion was entertained of his political Principles and Court Connexions, Mr. Hammond was put up in Oppoſition to him, and on the Morning of the Election ſo great was the Majority of the Voters for Mr. Hammond, that Mr. Stewart thought it prudent to decline.

The Polls being cloſed, and Meſſieurs Paca and Hammond declared duly elected, it was propoſed, and univerſally approved of, to go in ſolemn Proceſſion to the Gallows, and to bury under it the much deteſted Proclamation. A Deſcription of the Funeral Obſequies may not be diſagreeable to the Public.

Firſt were carried two Flags with the following Labels, on one LIBERTY, on the other NO PROCLAMATION. Between the Flags walked the two Repreſentatives: A Clerk and Sexton preceded the Coffin; on the Left, the Grave-digger, carrying a Spade on his Shoulder. The Proclamation was cut out of Antilon's firſt Paper, and depoſited in the Coffin, near which moved ſlowly on two Drummers, with muffled Drums, and two Fifers, playing a dead March: After them were drawn ſix Pieces of ſmall Cannon, followed by a great Concourſe of Citizens, and Gentlemen from the Country, who attended this Funeral. In this Order they proceeded to the Gallows, to which the Coffin was for a Time ſuſpended, then cut down and buried under a Diſcharge of Minute-guns. On the Coffin was the following Inſcription:

THE PLOCLAMATION
The Child of FOLLY and OPPRESSION
born the 26th of November 1770
departed this Life
14th of May 1773
and Buried on the ſame Day
by
The FREEMEN of Annapolis.

It is wiſhed, that all ſimilar Attempts againſt the Rights of a free People may meet with equal Abhorrence, and that the Court Party, convinced by Experience of the Impotency of their Intereſt, may never hereafter diſturb the Peace of the City, by their vain and feeble Exertions to bear down the free and independant Citizens.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.

Meſſieurs HALL and SELLERS.

AS many Farmers and others, in this and the neighbouring Provinces, have for many Years laſt paſt been much troubled with the Growth and Increaſe of a Weed, known by the Name of the RANSTED WEED, on their Lands, and particularly in their MARSH MEADOWS, I do hereby take this agreeable Opportunity, through the Channel of your uſeful Paper, to inform them, that I have ſucceeded to the utmoſt of my Wiſhes, in entirely eradicating the ſame out of my Marſh Meadows, by this plain and eaſy Method;---I mowed the ſeveral Spots I had of the ſame ſix or ſeven times, during the Time of the Summer, by which Means it never flowered, nor, of Courſe, came to any Seed. My Labour was crowned with this Succeſs, that in the Courſe of a few Years I was entirely clear of this pernicious Weed.

Captain Johnſon, from Cape-Nichola, informs, that a few Days before he ſailed a French Frigate arrived at that Place, and ſeized 13 Sail of Engliſh Veſſels, belonging to different Ports on the Continent, the Maſters whereof hired a Bermudian Sloop to go to Jamaica with Letters to the Admiral, requeſting his Interpoſition in their Behalf, but it was generally thought the Veſſels would all be confiſcated, as many of their Hands were returning Home; and that the French are very ſtrict in ſearching every Veſſel from the Colonies, and all counterfeit Coin found on board they confiſcate; but the light Money they detain in their Hands till the Veſſels are ready for ſailing, when it is returned, they being determined to take none but the genuine Spaniſh or Portugal Gold.----On the the 18th Inſtant, in Lat. 34: 23, Long. 71: 37, Captain Johnſon ſpoke the Snow Adventure, Captain Wilſon, from New-Caſtle, on Tyne, for Maryland, with a great Number of Paſſengers, who were very ſickly; and the ſame Day he ſpoke a Sloop, from Virginia for Antigua, three Days out.

Captain Cochran, from Glaſgow, on the 10th Inſtant, in Lat. 31, Long. 64, ſpoke a Sloop, Captain Robinſon, from Virginia for Nevis, 15 Days out; and on the 19th, about 35 Leagues S. E. from our Capes, he ſpoke the Brig Carpenter, Captain Williams, from this Port for Liſbon, all well.
